Introduction.....	15
--------------------------	-----------

6 January 2020, Message of St. Michael the Archangel, Epiphany of the Lord	21
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------

---------------------------------------------------------	-----------

God does not need to run after anyone. What is done is done. In all these years, the Lord has chosen and called, and many have responded. The armies of Good and Evil are deployed. There are still many in between who have to be awakened so that they may choose between good and evil. Thus, the action in spirit is needed. It is necessary that the people of God offer themselves on the altars, the temples, there where the Lord calls them, to lift up those who are of good will and destroy those who are not. 21

12 January 2020, Message of the Holy Spirit, Baptism of the Lord....	26
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------

Your Mission Is the Work of the Most Holy Trinity.....	26
---------------------------------------------------------------	-----------

Children, I bless you and I descend on you to confirm the Trinitarian action in you. In your heart, listen to the words of the Father that He turns to each one of you: “This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased” (Mt 3,17). The Father is pleased with you if Christ lives in you. The Father glorifies Himself in the Son who lives in you, and the Son, who is in you, glorifies the Father. I come down and confirm this powerful work of the Most Holy Trinity..... 26

---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------

I Renew My Alliance with You	31
-------------------------------------------	-----------

And you, My people, live with faith, courage and love, and you will not lack anything you need. I thank you for each step you will do with Me. Remember well that from now you are absolute property of the Most Holy Trinity, from whom you depend in everything. You will no longer rely on human science, doctrines and human technology, but you will live at the service of the Most Holy Trinity who will make of you a new humanity. I promise this to you and I bless you; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. ..31

22 February 2020, Message of Mary Most Holy, Chair of St. Peter and Anniversary of the Foundation of the “Fortress of the Immaculate” 38

I Am the Co-Redemptrix of Humanity..... 38

Know, Children, that just as I endured Jesus’ sufferings, so too have I participated in the glory of His resurrection. I am the Co-Redemptrix because I shared death and resurrection with My Son. My whole being revived when Jesus was resurrected, and I paved the way for you so that you, one day, may enter the new creation. 38

19 March 2020, Message of St. Joseph, Solemnity of St. Joseph 42

Guarding Grace to Live 42

Mary and I guarded everything He said to us. Our heart was like a safe. We did not want to keep but guard. To guard does not mean to keep the realities of God to oneself or to take possession of them, but to let these realities penetrate into the depths of the spirit and become a memory to be shared a little at a time. 42

24 March 2020, Message of Mary Most Holy, Vigil of the Annunciation of the Lord..... 47

The Presence of Jesus..... 47

I wish you understood, My children, that the mystery of the Incarnation is not inaccessible for those who welcome and love Jesus, nor is it for His people. In fact, even today the Lord repeats to everyone of you: “Do not be afraid ... you have found favour with God. ... The Holy Spirit will come on you.” And you answer with Me: “I am the Lord’s servant”. This is the meaning of life: to be children of God and servants of the Lord, who bring the living presence of Jesus to humanity. 47

2 April 2020, Message of St. Michael the Archangel 50

Appeal to the Humanity of the Earth..... 50

I repeat to you that these are the last times. God has ordered me to be at the head of His hosts of light. I ANNOUNCE TO YOU THAT TODAY THE GREAT AND FINAL BATTLE AGAINST THE INFERNAL FORCES BEGINS. The Earth will be the scenario of the final and inevitable confrontation. God wants me to guide His Church of the whole Universe resolutely towards the victory over Lucifer and his hosts. I will do it. Now it is up to you to decide what to do and on which side to be. If you decide to serve the true God, you will be loved and protected by Him, and you will not lack anything. If you reject Him, you will face an unfortunate destiny.50

12 April 2020, Message of Jesus, Holy Easter of the Resurrection..... 57

I Entrust to You All the Good that is Done on Earth57

Remember that those who follow Satan are always united among themselves; they feed each other with evilness and hatred. You, on the other hand, are called to give your life for all those who do good, just as I did for you. That is very important. Otherwise, you will not be able to win the battle since you are few in number, but many people will be able to join you in spirit. It does not matter if you do not know them. I will connect all the good that is accomplished on Earth with the good that is done in the Universe. In this way, you will do something great together with Me.57

19 April 2020, Message of Jesus, Divine Mercy Sunday 61

God's Mercy and Justice61

When I say that Redemption must be brought to completion, I mean that both mercy, which I have already obtained for you, and justice, which is only partial because I have not yet returned to Earth, must be fully accomplished. Now, mercy must also leave room for justice. This is the time in which divine justice must come forward as you have never seen it before, because everything is moving towards fulfilment, even mercy and justice.61

30 April 2020, Message of St. Peter the Apostle 65

Announce the Glorious Return of Christ65

The time you live in is the obligatory passage towards the fulfilment of human history. It is an intermediate dimension, which is situated between the past and the future. The old creation is dying and the new one is about to be born. Everything is transforming rapidly. The people of God, His Church of the Universe, is the motor of this transformation. God is acting through His people to bring to light all existing things in order to promote the good and force evil to draw back. Your testimony must therefore be centred on the second coming of Christ and the new creation.65

30 May 2020, Message of the Holy Spirit, Vigil of Pentecost..... 71

Knowledge Is Love..... 71

In the deep silence of your being, when you bow before God and recognise to be humble creatures, I generate life in you. Thus, knowledge blossoms and I fully act in you. The same is true for a people: if an entire people lives immersed in creative silence and wants to know Me, I make Myself known because I am in you; I am with you; I act above you and you are able to know Me. The rivers of living water, of which Jesus speaks, not only flow from the hearts of those who believe in Christ, but also from the bosom of an entire people. This is what I expect from you: that rivers of living water may flow from the bosom of this Church and wet the desert of your humanity..... 71

11 June 2020, Message of St. John the Apostle, Feast of Corpus Christi..... 75

The Last Supper of the Lord 75

In every Holy Mass, you offer yourselves to God and anticipate the events, because in Jesus' Sacrifice all that was, that is and that will be is consumed. All evil is consumed and the devil's power is taken away. That is why, Lucifer hates the Eucharist and has always tried, by all means, to profane it. He knows the power of this Sacrament and the power of the participation of the people in the Eucharistic Sacrifice. Your participation is the only possibility you have to defeat Evil. Without the help of Jesus, who physically enters into you, through the Eucharist, you would not have the possibility to cross that horrible, arid desert, full of snakes and scorpions, which is life on Earth. What help would you receive without the Eucharist? 75

11 June 2020, Message of St. Barnabas the Apostle 79

This is the task of the Church, beyond all charity work. The foundation of all action of the Church consists in making the great miracle of the Transubstantiation actual in every Holy Mass. This powerful miracle nourishes not only the Earth, but also the whole Universe, for not a single drop of Christ's Blood, shed on your altars, is lost..... 79

11 June 2020, Blessing of Mary Most Holy 82

"I am always with you. My task as Mother, Queen and Coredemptrix is to help you experience in all your trials and sufferings the victory of Jesus'

Resurrection. I bless you together with the whole Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.” .82

24 June 2020, Message of Mary Most Holy, Vigil of the anniversary of the apparitions of the Queen of Peace in Medjugorje..... 83

Rebuilding the Humanity of the Earth83

Only My Son, Jesus, can save this humanity. Just as the Holy Spirit descended and overshadowed Me, He will descend on this planet to prepare the way for My Son who will return. Time is getting short. The Father expects from His Church of the Universe, especially from you, a strong commitment to help the men of the Earth to re-emerge from the chaos in which they have fallen, from the darkness that is oppressing them.83

16 July 2020, Message of Our Lady, Our Lady of Mount Carmel 88

Contemplating the Life of the Father88

The Face of the Father must dissolve the darkness. The light of His Face must reject the darkness that the face of Satan emanates. You are asked to contemplate and embrace the life that God gives you. Wherever you are, make the Face of the Father shine; contemplate His life even in creation, which is entrusted to you, because His Face must also shine in creation, as it is the Face of life; it is the source of life. If you cannot see the light of His Face, you continue to live in the darkness, and I do not want this for anyone of you.88

1 August 2020, Message of Mary Most Holy, Vigil of the Solemnity of the Queen of Angels..... 91

Walk towards Forgiveness.....91

Today, I ask you to pursue with Me a path of purification from all sins, not only a personal path, but also of the whole people of God. Remember that the new people, that is, the Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe, has the ability to atone for sins and to make up for all shortcomings of the remaining people of God. On Earth, there are many children of God of good will, who are soiled by the world as they are inserted in a difficult, thorny reality. Very often they fall superficially into sin, without thinking. Thus, the Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe fulfils the path towards forgiveness in the name of many children of God.91

7 August 2020, Message of God the Father, Solemnity of God the Father 94

This Solemnity Will Be the Beginning of Your Liturgical Year 94

I want this day, 7 August of every year, to be the beginning and the culmination of your liturgical year and all your celebrations. Every year, on this day, I will renew My Alliance with you and yours with Me. You will consecrate the Earth and all sufferings to Me, especially those of My children who invoke Me. I will let My Spirit descend powerfully on you and the whole of My Church present on Earth [the Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe-Editor].affect the Earth and the whole of My people present in the Universe.
..... 94

14 August 2020, Message of Mary, Vigil of the Solemnity of the Assumption of Mary, Mother and Queen of the new creation..... 98

The Living Liturgy..... 98

I bless all those who are present and those who are united with you in the same spirit. I am pleased to begin the new Liturgy for this year with you. A liturgical year is not a set of rites and memories but an ongoing and increasingly deepening path towards the fullness of life. It is a journey towards the new creation that each of you and the whole people of God accomplish on Earth and on other planets that are faithful to God. I said, “a new Liturgy”, but in reality, it is an eternal Liturgy. In fact, your Liturgy on Earth is the participation in the eternal Liturgy that has been taking place in Heaven from the beginning of creation. 98

28 September 2020, Message of St. Michael the Archangel, Vigil of the solemnity of the seven great Archangels103

The Church of the Universe Will Come Down to Earth 103

You have been told that we angels are sent to separate the wheat from the weeds in these times, but not only that: we are sent to prepare the way for the Church of the Universe, which will come down to Earth where the last battle will take place. It will be the last and final clash between Good and Evil; between Jesus Christ and Lucifer; between the angels and the demons. It will be a great battle between light and darkness. Therefore, God sends us angels to prepare the way for the heavenly Jerusalem that will descend from

Heaven.If we did not do that, you would not be able to move forward; without us, even the faithful brothers and sisters would not be able to act. 103

4 October 2020, Message of St. Francis of Assisi, Solemnity of St. Francis of Assisi..... 107

Be Worthy of Your Task107

Dearest brothers and sisters in Christ, peace be with you! I want to accompany you towards the new creation like a father and a brother. You have been told that your path is Marian and Franciscan, and these two aspects are inseparable.

My love for the Mother of God guided me on my whole path. I was totally immersed in the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

No spiritual path can arise from the will of man, no matter how virtuous; it is always God's initiative to call man, and then man responds. Nevertheless, due to man's weakness, his response is often uncertain and fearful, and this is when the Heavenly Mother begins to act. Her pure and immaculate Love envelops those who have been chosen by God and helps them respond. Her hand supports them and shows them the right steps to take; She intercedes for them, comforts, encourages and blesses them. Every true vocation is born from God's call and from the Mother's womb; the calling is embodied in those who respond, and thus becomes a work of God, visible to the eyes of man. 107

13 October 2020, Message of God the Father..... 113

Living in Truth and Justice113

The offering of your life to Me becomes an enormous gift that transforms everything in you and around you. When a person and a people consecrate themselves to Me, through My Son, in the Holy Spirit, I place a shield around each one of them and around the whole people, which will protect them from all attacks by evil. From this, an ever new life comes forth, which will protect and nurture you. Thus, you become the reflection of the presence of God wherever you go and whatever you say. My face will shine on you and people will know the truth. 113

31 October 2020, Message of St. Michael the Archangel, Vigil of the Solemnity of All Saints..... 116

The Lord Will Come with All His Saints 116

The “Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe” will continue her pathway in the whole Universe. She will grow and manifest herself more and more to the eyes of the entire humanity. On Earth in particular, she will reveal herself to those who are of good will. Many Catholics feel crushed by the hierarchical system. Moreover, they do not understand what direction this papacy is giving to the Catholic Church. The same is taking place in the other Christian confessions, which are fragmented and often opposed to each other. In addition, many systems oppress your humanity: political, economic, religious systems, which degrade the little and exalt the powerful. They create confusion and bewilderment, preparing the way for the devil and his followers. Lucifer’s hatred and perversion reign on Earth.

People who feel bewildered in the face of so much confusion will turn their eyes to this Church to find support, teaching and shelter in the dark days awaiting the Earth..... 116

21 November 2020, Message of Jesus, Vigil of the Solemnity of Christ the King.....121

Be Ready for the Battle..... 121

My and your Father wants you to consecrate the whole year of 2021 to Me, the Son of God and King of the Universe, who I am. My Church of the whole Universe has to consecrate to Me every day of the coming year and every member has to consecrate every moment of his/her life. In this way, I will reign in My Church, and I will manifest the Kingdom of God through you. 121

7 December 2020, Message of Mary Most Holy, Vigil of the solemnity of the Immaculate Conception125

The Messianic Time..... 125

The year 2021 will indeed be a particular year for the Earth and for the “Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe”, present on this planet. It will be a turning point for the whole Universe. It means the beginning of a new time, a MESSIANIC TIME. Thus, a new era of human history will begin; one that has never been seen, and in which My Son will manifest His royal and priestly power in the Church of the whole Universe. 125

24 December 2020, Message of Jesus, Vigil of the Nativity of Our Lord 130

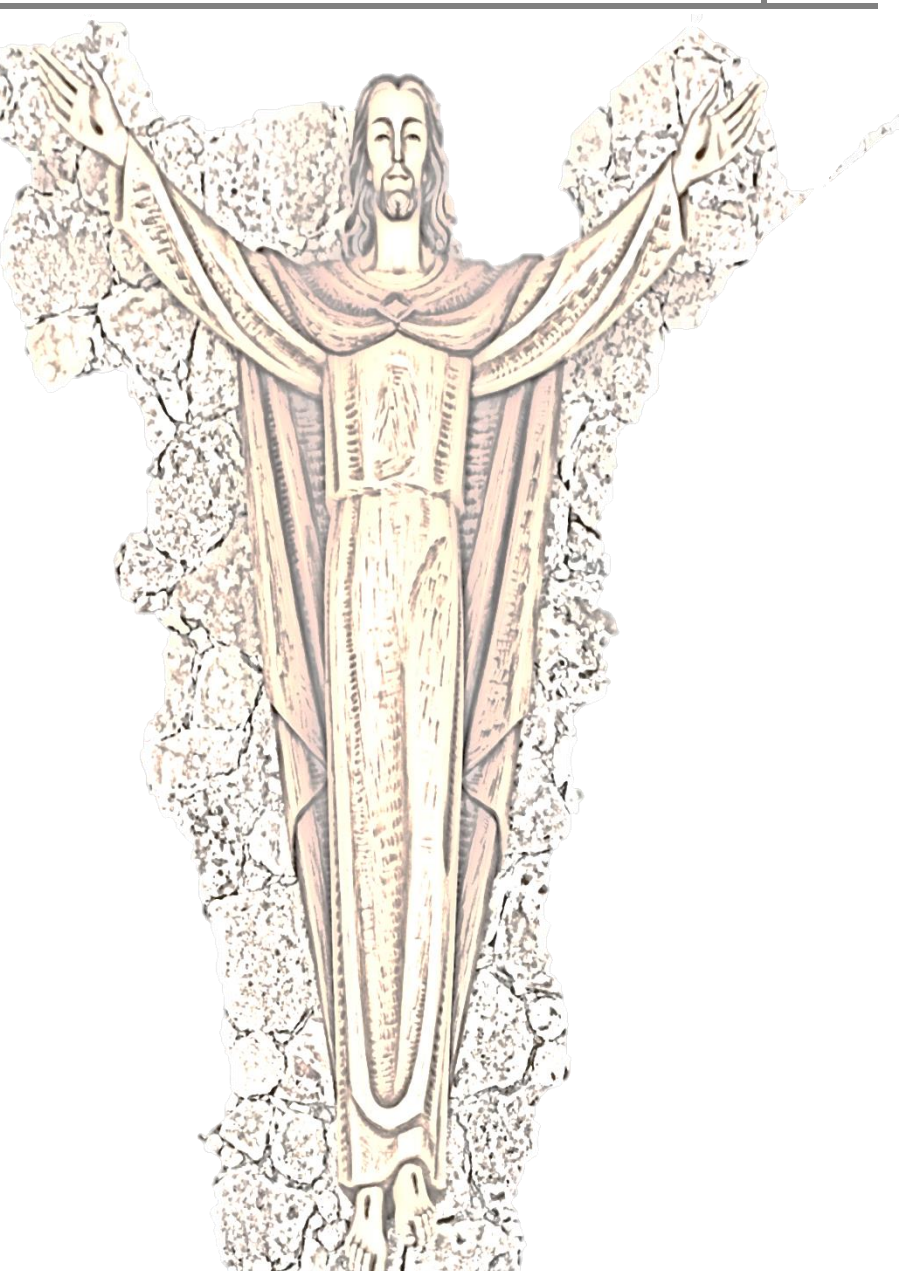

The Souls, Spouses of Christ.....130

You are living in very serious times; times of struggle between light and darkness, between the spirits of Good and Evil, which are facing each other in an unprecedented challenge. ...

What do I want from you? A simple life worthy of your calling; a holy life, offered to the One who is three times Holy. The Church will not be able to be My Spouse unless all the souls, of which she is composed, are My spouses. 130

31 December 2020, Message of Mary Most Holy, Vigil of the Solemnity of the Mother of God 136

Consecrated to the Service of Love.....136

Introduction

By Father Tomislav Vlašić

In the past years, we have written and spoken about many events related to the history of the Universe, particularly about what happened to the humanity of the Earth. Official history remembers only part of the events since our humanity lost its memory after original sin, unlike the humanities faithful to God, who remember their history from the beginning.

The One and Triune God is at the centre of our attention. “The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are one in substance and nature.”

“God is the most intelligent Being. The perfection of the creation proves the sublime intelligence of the Creator. Therefore, nothing is disordered or abandoned to itself in the universe. Every creature is original and unique as it carries within the imprint of divine life, which is PERFECTION, INTEGRITY AND ORIGINALITY.”¹

All creatures are able to participate in divine life, but all of them must be in communion with each other in a way that is similar to that of the One and Triune God. God created sublime beings, the angels and the humans, and entrusted them with the task of governing with Him all other creatures. God created them intelligent, free, independent and responsible so that by His grace they would lead the whole Universe to fullness.

However, among the angels and the humans, some did not behave responsibly towards God: they committed sin by rebelling against the Creator, and thereby introduced corruption into the Universe. God respected everyone's freedom; nevertheless, He always watched over

His work by limiting the works of evil. As Father, He promoted good in all ways and with loving attention to bring it to fullness.

The interaction between the will of God and the choice made by the angels and the humans is an EVENT in itself to which all other events of the history of the Universe are connected. God always acts in the fullness of time, when all aspects of life reach maturity. In this way, respecting the freedom of the creatures, He brings good to fullness. He even allows Lucifer to express himself through the wickedness of those who freely follow him. At the end of times, when everyone's choices will be final, good will separate from evil, for there can no longer be any interference between them. Good will fully unite with the One who is the HIGHEST GOOD. Those who have refused the Highest Good, who is God, will find themselves in the second death.²

After the coming of the Son of God, the Christians of the Earth, guided by the Holy Spirit, were given the task of directing humanity towards the new creation where they will live gloriously with the glorious Lord. In the Great Jubilee of 2000, when the two thousand years since Christ's birth were celebrated, God considered that the time was ripe to accelerate the fulfilment of His promises of salvation. He introduced the sublime and the extraordinary instruments and called the Christians of the Earth. He united the little remnant of the Earth with the Christians of the whole Universe. He started the evangelisation of the part of the Universe that had no knowledge of the events of salvation. The powerful Trinitarian action began, involving the whole creation and all those who decided to commit themselves to the recapitulation of the entire Universe in Christ.³ This is the COSMIC EVENT.

² See Rev 20,14-15

³ See S. Caterina, T. Vlašić, "Rewriting History—Vol. II—The Universe and Its Inhabitants", Part V, "From the Third Millennium to the New Creation", p. 307 ff., Luci dell'Esodo

We are now in the final times. With the consecration of the whole year 2020 to the Holy Spirit⁴, the great awakening of the humanity of the Earth to its final orientation began. For this purpose, we started the year 2020 with the solemn consecration to the Mother of God on 31 December 2019, and afterwards to the Most Holy Trinity on 19 January 2020.

With the solemn consecration of the whole “Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe”, the powerful action of the Most Holy Trinity in favour of the humanity of the Earth began. In the celebration of the solemnity of God the Father, on 17 August 2020, we renewed our solemn consecration of the Church. The Trinitarian vortex has involved us in a living and working liturgy, which allows us to participate in the Trinitarian action. It is no longer possible to participate in a insincere, superficial or passive way, but in a vital way to activate the events that lead to the new creation.⁵

*“Mary, who was taken to Heaven and is the Queen of the new creation”, as God the Father defined Her⁶, introduced us to this liturgy. Mary Most Holy has spoken to us about the Living Liturgy.⁷*

Thus began the new liturgical cycle, which accompanies the cosmic events. On 28 September 2020, St. Michael the Archangel announced that the Church of the Universe will come down to Earth.⁸ Afterwards, on 4 October 2020, St. Francis of Assisi explained to us why our path is Marian and Franciscan and why these two aspects are inseparable.⁹

On 31 October 2020, St. Michael the Archangel also announced that the Lord will come with all His Saints¹⁰ and he showed us the programme to follow. On the vigil of the Solemnity of Christ the King, 21 November 2020, Jesus expressed the Father's wish for the year 2021 to be consecrated to the Son of God, Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.¹¹ Therefore, this now ending year, 2020, introduces us to the year 2021, in which the King of the Universe wants to involve us in His royal and priestly action.

This year, 2020, the three Divine Persons, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, have manifested their action, which took place both individually and in communion. Through their intervention, the great figures of the Church have expressed themselves:

- Mary Most Holy, Assumed into Heaven, Co-Redemptrix, Mother and Queen of the new creation;
- St. Joseph, Her Spouse in the Holy Spirit, who guards the children of God;
- St. Michael the Archangel, Precursor of the glorious Christ, commander of the army of God, who has announced the last and final battle on Earth;
- St. Peter, who speaks of the glorious return of Christ;
- John and Barnabas, the holy Apostles, who invite us to participate actively in the action of the Most Holy Trinity;
- St. Francis of Assisi, who clarifies his path in God with Mary Most Holy.

Through them, as the messages show, humanity has received much light to take part in the action of the Most Holy Trinity.

What can you do? We have given you many explanations, and the instruments of God will be active and at your disposal. Listen to Jesus' words:

¹⁰ See Message of St. Michael the Archangel of 31 October 2020, "The Lord Will Come with All His Saints"

¹¹ See Message of Jesus of 21 November 2020, "Be Ready for the Battle"

“All those the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never drive away. For I have come down from heaven not to do my will but to do the will of him who sent me. And this is the will of him who sent me, that I shall lose none of all those he has given me, but raise them up at the last day. For my Father’s will is that everyone who looks to the Son and believes in him shall have eternal life, and I will raise them up at the last day” (John 6,37-40).

To facilitate your spiritual path, in this book we have highlighted in blue the central points of the messages, which indicate the guiding thread of the path of this year, 2020. This will help you to be prepared for the coming year, 2021, which will be consecrated to Christ the King.

I sincerely hope that this book will prepare you for the events that await us in the future.

*“The Spirit and the bride say, ‘Come!’
And let the one who hears say, ‘Come!’
And let everyone who is thirsty come.
Let anyone who wishes take the water of life as a gift”
(Rev 22,17 NRSV).*

6 January 2020, Message of St. Michael the Archangel, Epiphany of the Lord

God does not need to run after anyone. What is done is done. In all these years, the Lord has chosen and called, and many have responded. The armies of Good and Evil are deployed. There are still many in between who have to be awakened so that they may choose between good and evil. Thus, the action in spirit is needed. It is necessary that the people of God offer themselves on the altars, the temples, there where the Lord calls them, to lift up those who are of good will and destroy those who are not.

The Manifestation of the Trinitarian Power

“Dearest Brothers and Sisters of the Earth,

Peace to you! I wish you a year full of grace and light. I come in the name of the Most High God to proclaim His intentions and requests for the year 2020.

First of all, I want to inform you that the past year, 2019, has been fruitful for the Church of Jesus Christ in the whole Universe. The faithful brothers and sisters continued to visit the different rebellious planets, encouraging and supporting the little remnant that has formed on all planets, even the most rebellious, with slight differences. Every visit resulted in new conversions, even though the low Universe has remained substantially rebellious to God. However, a little remnant has formed and is united with you of the Earth and with the faithful humanities.

This year, the One and Triune God will manifest His power through His people in every part of the Universe. Here on Earth, there is a lot of work to do because, as you know, the Earth is the most rebellious among the rebellious planets. Besides, on Earth there is a clash of positive and negative energies, coming from all sides.¹² In fact, just as God is pouring His power and that of His Church upon the Earth, Lucifer is also pouring on the Earth His hatred and that of all of His people of the low Universe.

God wants to manifest His power, not just any power, through His people. I am not just talking about signs or miracles, but of the Trinitarian power. This means that the Most Holy Trinity has to manifest itself. The Three Persons of the Most Holy Trinity have to reveal themselves in their specific action and power. Therefore, the people of God on Earth must be filled and strengthened with the Trinitarian power to be able to manifest it.

Through the centuries, God worked out different strategies to support His people and destroy the enemy. In the beginning, at the time of the apostles and the first Christian generations, the Church of the Earth was marked by the presence of many martyrs. The blood of the martyrs inundated the Church of the Earth, and this also occurred later in history. I am not only speaking about the martyrdom of blood, but also about the inner martyrdom that many saints and righteous suffered through history because of persecution.

Despite that, God carried on with His plan. The Church of the Earth, the real one, even though persecuted and crushed, has resisted. The true heart of the Church has remained intact; hidden, often underground, but uncorrupted. Now it must come to light through you and through all those who have been called and have given their response at the moment of conception; they must awaken and act united with you.

As I told you, the martyr's blood has wetted the first Church. It will not be so for the Church of today as it must be glorious and capable of manifesting not only the Cross but also the Resurrection of the Lord.¹³ Therefore, God does not envisage a bloody confrontation with the forces of evil; He does not want more blood to be shed. Even though, unfortunately, many will be killed because of the wickedness of man, God will act in a different way: He will infiltrate His people in all satanic systems of the Universe. He will demolish them from within. You will be sent in spirit, together with many other brothers and sisters, to act as a lever to disrupt the systems from within.

Satan will not notice it as he cannot understand the action in spirit. No one can understand the action in spirit without having the Spirit of God in him. Therefore, he will sense something, but he will not be able to do anything about it because he does not have the means to oppose the action in spirit. He can kill man but not the spirit of man, least of all the Spirit of God.

The prophecies you have heard from the prophet Isaiah must fulfil¹⁴: all the good of the peoples, all the graces, the best of humanity, all will come together in the Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe. You have to pave the way for humanity to rise again. I do not mean the children of Satan; leave them to him. I am speaking about the children of God who are dormant and do not understand because no one has instructed them.

What is necessary now? Your prayers and the offering of yourselves. You have to live sincerely and thoroughly the three pillars of the Kingdom of God that you have been told: the offering of your life, your integrity and the universal communion.¹⁵ Live in your houses with simplicity but with depth, putting in practice what you have heard in these years.

¹³ See Rev 20,5-6

¹⁴ See Isa 60,1-6

¹⁵ See S. Caterina, 2008, "Beyond the Great Barrier", Chap. 11, "The Church - God's holy people", pp. 201-213, Luci dell'Esodo

Do not turn around yourselves anymore. Your prayers must rise and not revolve around your problems. You all have problems, all humanity does, but if you wait to solve your problems in order to fulfil this mission, you are wrong. Begin your mission and you will solve your problems. God will solve them. Focus on how to help the Church of the whole Universe. Help the Church of the Universe and she will help you as you are one heart and one soul.

You do not need great proclamations or propaganda. Do not fight against anyone; it is no longer the time. Even God does not waste strength to fight against those who do not want to understand. Carry on with your mission. You are the troops God has chosen; walk before the others to pave the way for them, just as the extraordinary instruments walk before you.¹⁶

This is the time of the manifestation of God and His people. Therefore, I ask you to be very attentive to God's action in you so that it may also manifest itself through you. The Lord will protect you from evil. If you are faithful, you will not have serious problems; you will not clash with the enemies, nor will they come to bother you because Satan is confused. However, should they come to bother you, respond with love, patience and joy; then open the door and let them out.

God does not need to run after anyone. What is done is done. In all these years, the Lord has chosen and called, and many have responded. The armies of Good and Evil are deployed. There are still many in between who have to be awakened so that they may choose between good and evil. Thus, the action in spirit is needed. It is necessary that the people of God offer themselves on the altars, the temples, there where the Lord calls them, to lift up those who are of good will and destroy those who are not.¹⁷

¹⁷ See Message of Holy Mary of 7 December 2019, "Offering Ourselves with Mary on All Altars of the Earth".

Above all, it is indispensable that the people enter the systems of Satan. You will see, and you can already partly notice that the systems will go into crisis; they will attack each other; one kingdom will be against the other. The children of Satan will clash with each other because neither of them wants to be weaker than the other. All of them want to command and the loudest and the most wicked are the winners. All of them hope to obtain what Satan promised them: power, but they will not get it, for the power belongs to God and His people.

Take courage, brothers and sisters, keep going. Stop thinking of yourselves and look beyond. Observe the actions of God, not those of Satan. Think about the things God does, and what He can do through you, and not what you may or may not be able to do. The power of God is capable of taking you beyond your limits and your problems.

I bless you and I am with you; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

12 January 2020, Message of the Holy Spirit, Baptism of the Lord

Children, I bless you and I descend on you to confirm the Trinitarian action in you. In your heart, listen to the words of the Father that He turns to each one of you: "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased" (Mt 3,17). The Father is pleased with you if Christ lives in you. The Father glorifies Himself in the Son who lives in you, and the Son, who is in you, glorifies the Father. I come down and confirm this powerful work of the Most Holy Trinity.

Your Mission Is the Work of the Most Holy Trinity

"Dearest Children,

This is a very important day because today your personal mission for this year and that of the people begins, in remembrance of Jesus' earthly mission that began with His Baptism.

The mission I am speaking of is not your work but that of the Most Holy Trinity who realises it through the people. The Father calls you from the moment of conception. If you respond to His call, Jesus comes to you to accomplish the work of the Father in each of you and through you. Then, He fully confirms His work through Baptism. I also descend on you in the sacrament of confirmation to confirm Jesus' work, which He accomplishes in the name of the Father in each one of you.

Jesus mission and Mine are indivisible. Jesus accomplishes Everything together with Me and vice versa. Jesus acts with all His power because He acts with Me. Both of us bring the work entrusted to us by the Father to completion, in His Name and for His Glory. Jesus and I work in each one of you and in the whole people.

Every mission needs a baptism. However, the Christian baptism is not an initiation ritual to a religion, but the full confirmation of the Trinitarian work in you. You have welcomed the work of God and now you have to carry it out in the Trinitarian power. In reality, the Three Divine Persons act through you. However, you have to give your consent to their action fully and freely. God does not ask you to act with ignorance but with full awareness.

This is the time in which the people must act more and more powerfully. Today, the day in which you remember Jesus' Baptism, God confirms and starts the mission of His people so that they may fully manifest the Trinitarian power in the year 2020. In this way, all justice is done as it was for Jesus.¹⁸ My confirmation of Jesus' work in you is the testimony of the work of the Father, which Jesus has accomplished in the people on the journey of all these years. Thus, all justice is done, because before the world it must be clear that you are not acting out of yourselves but in the Trinitarian power.

What is your mission this year? It is the powerful action in spirit as has already been explained to you. Today you are able to understand it better in the light of the words of the prophet Isaiah that you have read: to open the eyes of the blind, to liberate the prisoners, to lift up those who suffer pain and darkness; to act without clamour or dispute, without breaking what is fragile.¹⁹ Just as you have heard in the reading, God has no preferences about people, but He welcomes those who practice justice, regardless of the people they belong to.²⁰ This must apply to you, too: do not have preferences about people. Wherever the Lord sends you, act with the Trinitarian love to open the eyes of the blind and help the prisoners out of the darkness. This is your mission, which has to be carried out by each one of you, particularly by the priests. They have the great task of gathering the flock and lead it to the target: to follow Jesus fully, to follow Him in Me.

On the one hand, the year that has begun will be easier for you because the Trinitarian power will act in you; on the other hand, it will be more difficult because of the opposition of the spirit of evil who will strike with more hatred, noticing that its power decreases and that it is overcome. Nevertheless, do not be afraid, because the One who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world; as it is written²¹ and as it truly is, for no force can oppose the Trinitarian power.

If you discover that you have limits and weaknesses, do not be hard on yourselves. No one can totally remove from you the limits of creatures. Not even God does it because your limits are also your protection, as they prevent you from going where you would hurt yourselves. The important thing is that you submit your limits and weaknesses to God so that He may use them for the good: often your limits are like a net with which you catch many souls that are like you. Therefore, God leaves the limits to you. He also allows them to make you humble, and for many other reasons that you do not fully understand. However, the moment you hand over your limits to God, the limits turn into strengths. The world does not understand that, but you must understand that God can do anything and that even what is worthless to the world may be a strength in God.

Therefore, I invite you to look at yourselves and others in a positive way, because your limits and those of the others cannot stop God's action if you do not permit it. Therefore, do not be surprised if your limits do not disappear. Do not mistakenly think that the Trinitarian power will manifest itself through human strength; that is not so. It is written that God's power manifests itself in the weakness of man in order to keep him from saying that he accomplished something himself. None of you can say that, despite all your skills, charismas or intelligence, because everything you do is the work of the Trinity. You are instruments of the Trinity.²²

Therefore, remain simple and humble like Mary, who never tried to go beyond the limits of this Earth, despite having all the possibilities to do it. Not even the Archangels go beyond their limits because they know that this is willed by God for their protection. Be happy in your nothingness because that is where God manifests Himself.

Children, I bless you and I descend on you to confirm the Trinitarian action in you. In your heart, listen to the words of the Father that He turns to each one of you: “This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased” (Mt 3,17). The Father is pleased with you if Christ lives in you. The Father glorifies Himself in the Son who lives in you, and the Son, who is in you, glorifies the Father. I come down and confirm this powerful work of the Most Holy Trinity.

Now, receive My blessing; may it be your guide, your help, your comfort; may it be your strength for the year awaiting you. The Lord is pleased with you, and He will not fail to give you His grace. I protect you and I send you, in the name of the Most Holy Trinity, to liberate the prisoners of the Earth and the Universe.

I bless you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Trinity.”

Consecration to the Most Holy Trinity

To You, Most Holy Trinity,
in communion with the whole Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe and all creatures (Rev 5)
in the Immaculate Heart of Mary,
I offer my life for the salvation of the Earth and the whole Universe.

Your immaculate love, oh Mary,
may purify, protect and offer me
so that my offering to Jesus
may always and everywhere be spiritual worship
“as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing God” (Rom 12,1-2).

Holy Spirit, Your burning Fire may light my heart and my bones (Jer 20,7-9)
so that I may overcome all trials with Your help, fully responding to each of Your impulses.

May my whole being, oh Father, know and testify forever to Your infinite love.
Always recognise in me Your child,
who wishes to return to Your house
to live eternally in communion with You.

I consecrate my life to You, Most Holy Trinity,
to live the holy Gospel with simplicity,
with my offering and with integrity
in communion with the whole
Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe.
Amen.

19 January 2020, Message of God the Father, Solemn consecration of the people to the Most Holy Trinity

And you, My people, live with faith, courage and love, and you will not lack anything you need. I thank you for each step you will do with Me. Remember well that from now you are absolute property of the Most Holy Trinity, from whom you depend in everything. You will no longer rely on human science, doctrines and human technology, but you will live at the service of the Most Holy Trinity who will make of you a new humanity. I promise this to you and I bless you; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

I Renew My Alliance with You

“Dearest Children,

You have reached the day in which you have decided to solemnly consecrate yourselves to the Most Holy Trinity.²³ This is an important day for you who are present, for the whole people united with you and for all those on Earth who feel part of the Church of Jesus Christ of the whole Universe.

Today is a point of arrival and of departure. It is a point of arrival because today your preparation is completed, and it is a point of departure because today your real mission begins. This does not mean that you will not receive further explanations because the light will always be given to you. I mean that your mission begins today because from now on you must put into practice all that you have received and bear witness to it. My Glory must be manifested through you, for the Church is called to manifest the Glory of the Most Holy Trinity, especially My Glory as Father. I am the Father who loves all and wants to save all. Unfortunately, I cannot save all, not because I do not want to save all, but because people do not want it and neither do the spirits of evil.

I sent My Son, Jesus Christ to Earth to liberate you from the devil and the idols behind which the demons always manifest themselves. Know that behind every idol there is a demon; therefore, when you serve the idols, you subject yourselves to the demons. I sent My Son to establish the Church on Earth, which is My people, called to manifest salvation. Throughout the centuries I watched everything that the Church did and did not do. I watched the Christians of the Earth and I saw things I would never have wanted to see. Despite the coming of My Son in the flesh, I must note that the Earth is still pagan; it is infested with demons and idols of all kinds.

Children, these are very serious times. Your planet is partially destroyed as you can see in nature. The elements of earth, water, fire and air are deeply disturbed, contaminated and profaned. This is also true for the heart of man. Unfortunately, the Church is divided within herself; she has been fragmented from the beginning. The Christians have fought a meaningless battle against each other; confessions against confessions, doctrines against doctrines. Instead of the sword, they have used the Word of God. In the name of My Son Jesus, they have judged, killed, stolen and committed terrible actions in My eyes.

However, I want to tell you that the real Church exists and has always existed. She has never left the catacombs because another structure, which defines herself as Church, gradually imposed herself through history. There have always been two Churches: that of Christ, which belongs to Me, and that of Lucifer, which belongs to him. Two different entities, two opposite realities, forced to coexist in the name of a hierarchical system.

Children, the time has come for me to divide the true Church from the false one. That is because the point was reached where the Pope, the representative of the Catholics, that is, of a large part of the Christians of the Earth, introduced an idol into the Church.²⁴ He placed it in front of the altar which stands on the remains of the glorious Apostle Peter. He placed an idol in front of My Son, present on the altar, with an attitude of open challenge. The measure is full. This is the limit in My eyes and there is no return. Until today I have waited for the false Church to convert, but this has not happened. I tell you, therefore, that this is not My Church: she has never been and never will be.

Today I divide the true Church from the false one, and I renew with you My eternal alliance that no one will ever be able to break. The alliance with Me has only one name: My Son, Jesus Christ. He is the living alliance; He is the guarantee that you are Mine.

In all these millennia, the action of the false Church aimed at diminishing the figure of My Son, making it appear harmless and evanescent. Jesus has been presented as the head of a religion, a prophet among many others, a virtuous spiritual teacher and nothing more; yet, Jesus Christ, My Son, is the Only Saviour of humanity. He is the Lord of the Universe who governs the entire creation in My Name. Whoever wants to reach Me, must pass through Him and recognise Him as the Son of God, Lord and only Master. Without this there cannot be, and never will be, any alliance with Me. I have used mercy, but now I will apply justice. Everyone will inexorably have what he has chosen.

The false Church has also worked to profane and diminish the value of the Sacrament of the Eucharist, denying the presence of My Son in it. The false Church has acted in such a way that the Christians became indifferent towards the Eucharist, creating many doubts in them about this Sacrament. A large part of the Christians now does not believe in Jesus' presence in the Eucharist.

The false Church also sought to annul the figure of Mary Most Holy and make Her look unnecessary; She, who is My beloved Daughter, the Mother of God, the Spouse of the Holy Spirit and Co-Redemptrix of humanity. Mary was given to you as Mother, but the false Church has eliminated Her, welcoming instead an idol that represents mother earth.²⁵ This is too much and the measure is full.

From now on, the true Church will be separated from the false one, and it will grow. It will manifest My power and My glory. Know that there is only one Church, founded on My Son Jesus Christ on Earth and present in the whole Universe. It recognises the Most Holy Trinity and Mary as Queen, Mother and Co-Redemptrix of humanity. She welcomes and lives the communion with all brothers and sisters of the Universe; she carries out Her mission everywhere to bring salvation to the living and the deceased. There is no other Church and there will be no other.

On this day, in which you consecrate yourselves to the Most Holy Trinity, I promise a new Heaven and a new Earth²⁶ to you and all men and women of good will of this planet, who want to live in the true Church of Jesus Christ of the whole Universe.

This planet will not be destroyed although Lucifer's envy and wickedness wants its destruction. He knows that I will give the Earth to My people, and he does not want to leave you even a crumb, but I will not allow it. You will have a new Heaven and a new Earth. You will see the planet rise again, and this will take place through the transformation of the people's hearts through My work and that of the Church. Finally, a new people will live the teachings of My Son, the commandments and the divine laws that I have imprinted in the hearts, as it should have been from the beginning. This will transform the Earth.

²⁵ He refers again to the statue of the Pachamama

²⁶ See Rev 21,1; 2 Pet 3,13

This transformation will not be the result of magic or something outside of you; it will take place in you and through you. You will see how the consciences of the good will slowly awaken, for the Holy Spirit will work everywhere on Earth and in the Universe to reawaken the memory of Me in the children of God and to remind them of the holiness of My Laws.

When all is accomplished, My Son will return to Earth. He will not present Himself as a meek Lamb, to be slaughtered by the children of Lucifer, but as King and Victor to collect His people and cast out Lucifer and his people once and for all. There will no longer be any place for Satan or his children on Earth. Whoever has chosen, adored and wanted him will be with him forever. My people, however, will triumph. The Immaculate Heart of Mary Most Holy, your Mother and Queen, the Mother of God, will triumph. The triumph of Her Heart will be the triumph of My Son's Hearth, and My Son's Heart will triumph for Me, for My Glory.

Therefore, dear children, always remember this day as a day of rebirth for the whole Universe, which has waited far too long for the action of your humanity.²⁷ It is time for Me to liberate the prisoners and open the eyes of the blind²⁸ so that they may recognise the true Church in which Jesus lives and which is also the chair from which He instructs you. Jesus' chair is His people; there is no other.²⁹ Thus, I ask you to have courage and absolute trust in Me and not to be afraid of anything.

My alliance with you will be unchallengeable, and no one will be able to break it. If you express your "yes" to Me today, I will act among you. Through you, I will bring forth a people that will grow more and more and unite with you in spirit.³⁰ You do not have to do great works. I only ask you to live with absolute faithfulness what you have learnt and proclaimed until now. I will work through you on all altars, in all churches and temples, wherever there is a child of God to be snatched from evil to lead it to the true Church. The Church of Lucifer, on the contrary, will dry up and become a desiccated tree.

What the Pope did was an act of idolatry like that of the golden calf.³¹ It is therefore necessary that I renew My alliance with a new people, and I will do it. Let this alliance live in you and among you. Live, testify, serve, love, forgive. Welcome all children of good will who will knock on your doors both of your houses and of your souls. Immerse them in your celebrations; reach them with your prayers. Make sure that when you pray, individually or all together, your prayers resound everywhere in the Universe where the Church is needed, and thus it will happen. If you are faithful, not one of your prayers will remain fruitless. Your words will resound everywhere, even in hell, and proclaim My Greatness. Therefore, My children, keep going and do not be afraid of anything.

I tell Lucifer and his people to watch out. Woe to you if you dare to touch this Church. You have challenged the eternal God, the Father of glory, and now, in return, you receive what you have sown. Woe to you if you touch again My people and if you try to infiltrate among them. Woe to you if you continue to destroy My creation. Now a new, strong people will oppose you and you will not be able to do anything. All the good you have tried to prevent on Earth, stopping the Church, will oppose you. All the evil you have done and all the curses you have poured out on the Earth, will return to you. This is justice. For you the

22 February 2020, Message of Mary Most Holy, Chair of St. Peter and Anniversary of the Foundation of the “Fortress of the Immaculate”

Know, Children, that just as I endured Jesus’ sufferings, so too have I participated in the glory of His resurrection. I am the Co-Redemptrix because I shared death and resurrection with My Son. My whole being revived when Jesus was resurrected, and I paved the way for you so that you, one day, may enter the new creation.

I Am the Co-Redemptrix of Humanity

“Dearest Children,

On this very particular day³², I hold all of you in My Heart with immense love, especially those who are ill and those who suffer in spirit; those who are persecuted in their families and at work because of this path. I hold you all in My Heart because I want to be close to you in all your trials.

I have asked you many times to help Me save the souls. Today I say: help Me in My work as Co-Redemptrix. I am the Co-Redemptrix of the entire humanity of the Universe. That is not a title but My Mission; My mission among you. It is the mission that I accepted at the moment of conception. Therefore, I am Mother to you because I have accepted to endure all the pain of the Universe with My Son to snatch you from suffering and death.

I endured all sufferings of the Passion with My Son: the spiritual sufferings caused by the betrayal, the abandonment, the offences and blasphemies as well as the physical pain. All that Jesus suffered in His body I also suffered in Mine, even though it was invisible to the eyes of the world. Many saints through history have endured some of the sufferings of the Passion, but I suffered all of them for you: My Heart was pierced, My hands and feet wounded, etc. I endured all this for you in silence to snatch you from Satan's hatred. For this reason, I am Mother to you, and therefore Jesus could entrust you to Me at the foot of the Cross.³³ My work as Co-Redemptrix continued in the early Church among the apostles and disciples. After My Assumption to Heaven, to the glory of the Holy Trinity where I live, My mission as Co-Redemptrix extended to the whole Universe.

Know, Children, that just as I endured Jesus' sufferings, so too have I participated in the glory of His resurrection. I am the Co-Redemptrix because I shared death and resurrection with My Son. My whole being revived when Jesus was resurrected, and I paved the way for you so that you, one day, may enter the new creation.

My work as Co-Redemptrix is incessant and unstoppable. I continue to offer all sufferings of the Universe to the Most Holy Trinity so that My children may also experience the joys of Heaven. In the same way, you have to walk Jesus' path and Mine. In fact, you are called to be co-redeemers, that is, people who participate with Me in the death and resurrection of My Son. Together with Me, you carry the sufferings of the world and the joys of Heaven. Together with Me, you are witnesses of the corrupt life that is dying, and the divine life that is always and incessantly reborn, through My Heart, for all of you.

I want this people to recognise My work as Co-Redemptrix and to participate in it to be increasingly united with Jesus, the Redeemer and Shepherd of humanity. Without Me, you cannot fully take part in the sacrifice of My Son, in His death and resurrection.³⁴ I have endured much pain, otherwise you would be crushed by the weight of suffering. Without Me you cannot touch the depth of God. I bring you His Life because I am the Mother of God and your Mother, the Coredemptrix of humanity and the Queen of the Universe. I want the people to recognise Me and welcome Me. If you do not understand My work as Co-Redemptrix, My figure becomes marginal and blurred, the way many Christians see Me.

³³ See John 19,25-27

³⁴ See S.Caterina, T. Vlašić, "Riscrivere la storia-Vol I-Nel pensiero di Dio", Luci dell'Esodo, 2010, pp. 75-78

Children, I tell you that Satan is terrified of My work as Co-Redemptrix, and He will do everything possible to counteract this reality, which he has never tolerated. He did not accept Jesus' incarnation, let alone that a woman could be Co-Redemptrix. Therefore, you will experience a lot of opposition, but do not worry: this is the time in which this truth must emerge. Thus, no one will be able to stop it. Satan will be furious, but He will not be able to do anything. Now, he is being cornered more and more because the people of God advance in the whole Universe, and no one can stop them anymore.

By proclaiming that I am the Co-Redemptrix, the Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe brings about a decisive turn in the history of salvation and of humanity. You have to be aware of this. I repeat that this is not a title; I do not need titles, nor am I interested in them. I do not want anything for Myself, but I want to help you and save you, together with My Son. This is My mission and I will complete it; nothing and no one will prevent Me from doing so. I have already told you, and I repeat it: from now on, I will use all My power as Queen and Co-Redemptrix to snatch as many souls as possible from the enemy with the support of the Church of the Universe.³⁵

³⁵ From the message of Mary Most Holy of 13 May 2017, "I Will Be the Voice of the Poor": "I have the right and the duty, before God and humanity, to speak to My children when I want, as much as I want and the way I want, without asking permission to anyone. God has asked Me to fully use My power as Mother and Queen of the universe; I will do it for you to help and protect you because these times are serious."

Therefore, Children, I thank you very much for this truly great step forward. This day must be a memorial for you. For My part, I assure you protection from all evil. I will always be with you. You will experience the pain of the world because you are immersed in it. Do not complain about it, but consider it an honour for you to be co-redeemers together with My Son and Me. In your heart, however, you will also experience the joys of Heaven: peace, love and all that the world does not have. Thus, amidst the chaos of the Earth you will bring the joys of Heaven and your heart will rejoice even if you are opposed, because you will always have the joy of God. This is My promise: whoever participates in My work as Co-Redemptrix will experience the pain of the world but also the joys of Heaven.

I bless you, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

19 March 2020, Message of St. Joseph, Solemnity of St. Joseph

Mary and I guarded everything He said to us. Our heart was like a safe. We did not want to keep but guard. To guard does not mean to keep the realities of God to oneself or to take possession of them, but to let these realities penetrate into the depths of the spirit and become a memory to be shared a little at a time.

Guarding Grace to Live

“Dearest Children,

I bless you and I thank you for all the path you have done in these years. I bless your fatherhood and motherhood and the whole people entrusted to you. Even though I rarely speak to you, I am always present among you with Mary Most Holy, my Spouse.

I have always been considered the guardian of the Holy Family. Being a guardian means something very broad. In fact, all of you are guardians of each other, of God’s life and of every grace that has been given to you. Above all, to guard means to live. You have to guard in order to live, to remember, to elevate yourselves. Without guarding the things of God, it is difficult to rise to Heaven. The people of the Earth waste the graces they receive and are surrounded by. They waste them in a superficial way because they do not know how to guard them.

Therefore, your greatest inner commitment must be to guard what you have received. Without custody, there is neither knowledge nor memory. Your first task is to be guardians of what has been revealed to you. Do not worry too much about speaking and preaching to others, because when you guard and remember what you have, grace expands through you; it is not wasted and will spread.

This is what Mary and I did in the house of Nazareth: we guarded every word that came out of Jesus' mouth. You have read in the Gospel that Jesus, still a child, spoke with teachers in the temple.³⁶ His wisdom was infinite. That child continuously instructed us with His life, His presence and His word. To work with Him in my workshop meant growing in a continuous catechesis.

Mary and I guarded everything He said to us. Our heart was like a safe. We did not want to keep but guard. To guard does not mean to keep the realities of God to oneself or to take possession of them, but to let these realities penetrate into the depths of the spirit and become a memory to be shared a little at a time.

You should all be like a bucket placed under the water gushing from the fountain: the bucket fills up and then begins to overflow. The overflowing water pours on the ground, offering itself generously, while the bucket does not empty but continues to fill up. This image represents the kind of guarding that I mean. Mary and I guarded everything Jesus said in our hearts, and we grew together with Him. Do as we did. In fact, you are called to guard and wisely administer what the Lord has placed in each one of you from the moment of conception.

It is important that the whole people guards what they have received. You are going towards a time of great battles on Earth. These days, you see that the great cosmic battle between Good and Evil, which is to unfold on your planet, has begun.³⁷ What will the Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe have to do? She will have to give gradually the treasure she is guarding within herself to all the people of good will. You must not and you will not be able to give everything to everyone, but you will have to recognise with common sense to whom to give and to whom not to give, behaving honestly without ever clashing against any power or authority. It is not your task to overthrow the powerful from their throne because this is up to God. Your task is to live and spread around you the grace you have guarded, and of which you have kept the memory so much that it has become a part of you. The Word of God must incarnate in you.

I have already spoken to you about the virginal silence that enables you to guard all things within you.³⁸ I do not mean a dead silence but a living silence. Through silence everything you receive from God day by day, from outside but mostly from within, will become part of you. Therefore, you need the silence of the lips but, even more, silence in your heart. Do not think you have to preach to the whole world. Your action in spirit is more important; it is the backbone of your mission, as it was for Mary and me.

The memory of the events did not remain closed in Mary and me; everything you read in the Gospel about Jesus' childhood, actually not much because a lot was removed; who, except the two of us, could have told those things? We gave the people the fruit of our experience in the right way and at the right time. This is how memory becomes knowledge, and then knowledge begins to spread, for it is made to be shared. If it is not shared in the right way, knowledge turns into imposition, into a superficial display of oneself. Unfortunately, many Christians use their knowledge, which is often a rational one, as a source for privileges and as an instrument of power, but it must not be so.

My figure has often been marginalised, but only by those who wanted to marginalise it. Throughout history, the Saints have always invoked me, and I have been particularly close to them. No Saint has ever neglected me. However, this is not so important. What is important, though, is that the whole Mystical Body of Christ is alive in you. In fact, it is not enough to remember the Saints, but it is necessary that you guard and keep the memory of the experience of holiness of the

³⁸ See S. Caterina, "Beyond the Great Barrier", Luci dell'Esodo, 2008, pp. 220-221

Church throughout the millennia. Today it is enriched and increased by the experiences of the faithful humanities and by those who invoke Jesus' Name in the whole Universe. The experiences of the Saints belong to you; they are an enormous wealth of knowledge you have within you because the experiences of the Saints are not lost but pour upon all of you.

The knowledge of God is shared among the members of the people. It does not just belong to a few individuals to be used as an instrument of power. That is what Satan does: the knowledge he owns is the instrument of power with which he crushes everyone. In God, however, knowledge is shared among the people and becomes memory and memorial, elevation and true wisdom.

My Spouse and I are with you and will always be there to help you, but you have to accept the difficulties and the obstacles caused by the disintegrating energy, present on Earth. Do you really think that the disintegrating energy of Herod did not touch us? Can you imagine the persecutions Mary and I suffered? Even though, we were protected by extraordinary grace, we were still a man and a woman, just as Jesus was true God and true man. We suffered, overcame and won over everything in Jesus' Name.

The Antichrist wants to take over all the power on Earth. Whether he uses a virus, a nuclear weapon or any other means makes no difference. What matters is that you know that you are moving towards the battle, but it is God who holds the reins of history in His hands.

The Antichrist cannot go beyond the limit imposed by God; he does not have unlimited power as Satan deludes himself to have. He has as much power as is given to him by the humanity of the Earth, and nothing more. You, on the other hand, are at the service of God and His omnipotence.

Now you have to act in silence, with simplicity, as Mary and I did, without beginning discussions with anyone. Treasure what you have received and allow the primary energy, which is in each of you and in the whole people, to act and counter the disintegrating energy. You are not alone in this battle: the whole Church of the Universe acts together with you. You may suffer and carry the pain of the world, but you will never be overwhelmed or persecuted more than necessary, because God now must prevail with His armies.

In the trial that the Earth is going through now because of the coronavirus pandemic³⁹, your victory is certain, because, as Jesus said, if you have faith, nothing is impossible to you.⁴⁰ You will fight with the weapons of faith, hope and love. Nevertheless, you have to be as cautious as I was when I had to flee to Egypt, even though I was protected by God. You do not have to be afraid because faith does not allow you to be fearful.⁴¹ You are protected, but do what you are asked to do. I also set off to fulfil the census duty. It cost me trouble and worry for my pregnant Spouse, for all that we had to suffer, but we both behaved like good citizens. You, too, have to be good Christians, good citizens, honest people.

I bless you together with Mary and the whole Mystical Body of Christ; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

24 March 2020, Message of Mary Most Holy, Vigil of the Annunciation of the Lord

I wish you understood, My children, that the mystery of the Incarnation is not inaccessible for those who welcome and love Jesus, nor is it for His people. In fact, even today the Lord repeats to everyone of you: "Do not be afraid ... you have found favour with God. ... The Holy Spirit will come on you." And you answer with Me: "I am the Lord's servant". This is the meaning of life: to be children of God and servants of the Lord, who bring the living presence of Jesus to humanity.

The Presence of Jesus

"Dearest Children,

Celebrate with Me the great day of the announcement that changed the destiny of humanity forever. The Lord descended among you through His Servant, who I am. He continues to be present on Earth and in the whole Universe through His servants, His children who love Him, welcome Him and invoke Him.

The presence of Jesus fills the Universe. Unfortunately, you are so oppressed by the action of Evil on Earth that you cannot fully perceive Jesus' presence. He is among you; He walks the streets of the world as He did when He was on Earth. Jesus lives in glory, but the announcement of the incarnation continues to renew itself ceaselessly on the altars and in the hearts of His children.

When you welcome this announcement with meekness and love, as I welcomed it, you unite with Jesus and He comes to dwell in you. The Holy Spirit pours on you and generates the life of God in each of you and in the people. In this way, you hold within you the salvation of the world and the Universe. This is why the devil hates you so much: because the Saviour lives in you before whom he has to bend his head.

I wish you understood, My children, that the mystery of the Incarnation is not inaccessible for those who welcome and love Jesus, nor is it for His people. In fact, even today the Lord repeats to everyone of you: “Do not be afraid ... you have found favour with God. ... The Holy Spirit will come on you.” And you answer with Me: *“I am the Lord’s servant.”*⁴² This is the meaning of life: to be children of God and servants of the Lord, who bring the living presence of Jesus to humanity.

Without My Son, Jesus, the only Redeemer, there is no salvation for humanity. Look at what is happening on Earth: it is enough that God looks away from you for a moment for humanity to be ruined.⁴³ Who can save you from hatred, from disease, from your tragedies if not the Saviour?

Dearest children, this is the time in which the battle becomes stronger. However, you are not fighting alone but with Jesus who is in you. He said: *“I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”*⁴⁴ Jesus is always with you and His presence fills your life. Do not forget that. You often tire yourselves when you accomplish the work of God, but the true work of God is to welcome Jesus in you and allow Him to live, love and serve through you. Yes, children, Jesus continues to serve humanity, sacrificing Himself on the altars to be close to you all.

In these days, because of the terrible disease that affects the Earth – which does not come from God but is the result of the wickedness and the corruption of man – you often hear that many people in the ⁴³ She refers to the trial that humanity is experiencing due to the Covid-19 pandemic that is afflicting the Earth. When God allows a trial of this magnitude to happen, He does it to draw to Him the part of humanity that is far away from Him. If humanity continues to reject Him, God lets humanity go alone, for justice. In this sense, it is as if He turned His eyes away from those who do not want to be looked at. This image often occurs in the Bible (e.g. Gen 3,8-10). In reality, God never abandons even the sinners.

⁴⁴ See Mt 28,19-20

hospitals die alone.⁴⁵ Everyone is distressed by this. Why? God is present! He sends His Angels and His instruments; He Himself is beside the sick. Why should Jesus, who went around doing good and healing all⁴⁶, let His children die alone? Only those who want to be alone, because they refuse God's love, will remain alone; they are like flowers that escape the sunlight and die. Children, this must not happen to you, who believe in God!

Welcome the presence of God and keep it alive in you. This is the greatest help you can give to this suffering Earth and to the Universe. A large part of the Universe is still suffering despite the great work of your faithful brothers and sisters.⁴⁷ This is caused by those who refuse God and continue to sow evil and corruption.

Dearest children, I want you to be always present before God, with Me, and God to be present in you. This is my invitation and My wish: to always have God in you and by your side. Jesus is with you, as it is written: He hems you in, behind and before, and He lays His hand upon you.⁴⁸

⁴⁵ She refers again to the coronavirus pandemic, which is claiming many victims worldwide. To prevent the spread of the infection, family members are not allowed to access hospitals, and therefore cannot accompany their loved ones when they die.

⁴⁶ See Acts 10,38-39

⁴⁷ She refers to the Low Universe which has been evangelised with great power by the faithful brothers and sisters; however, many people are still rebellious against God.

⁴⁸ See Psalm 139,5

2 April 2020, Message of St. Michael the Archangel

I repeat to you that these are the last times. God has ordered me to be at the head of His hosts of light. I ANNOUNCE TO YOU THAT TODAY THE GREAT AND FINAL BATTLE AGAINST THE INFERNAL FORCES BEGINS. The Earth will be the scenario of the final and inevitable confrontation. God wants me to guide His Church of the whole Universe resolutely towards the victory over Lucifer and his hosts. I will do it. Now it is up to you to decide what to do and on which side to be. If you decide to serve the true God, you will be loved and protected by Him, and you will not lack anything. If you reject Him, you will face an unfortunate destiny.

Appeal to the Humanity of the Earth

“Dearest Brothers and Sisters of the Earth,

The Most High God, Lord of the Universe, of whom I am the servant, sends me to you in this difficult time for the Earth. Your planet is enveloped in a dense network of lies, pierced by unprecedented pain, infested by this horrible pandemic that frightens you⁴⁹, wetted by the blood of too many victims, dominated by unscrupulous people without conscience.

The authors of all this are Lucifer, his demons and the people who serve them in exchange for money, power and privileges. No evil can ever come from God who is the Supreme Good. Evil comes from the prince of evil; corruption comes from the great seducer. His name is Lucifer. Many of you refuse to recognise his existence, but Lucifer and his followers have worked on Earth since the beginning of creation and your history. Lucifer rebelled against God who had created him an angel of light. All evils of the Universe derive from his betrayal. Not yet satisfied with having ruined himself, Lucifer corrupted men and creatures and continues to do so. He wants to dominate the Universe and become like God, and for this he uses all means. Lucifer is the origin of evil; he is Evil.

Good and Evil have always faced each other. Together with myriads of faithful angels, I have opposed Lucifer and his demons from the beginning and I will continue to do so. The One and Triune God chose me as the head of his heavenly hosts, and I have always watched over the people of God.⁵⁰

In order to defeat Lucifer, God the Father sent His Son, Jesus Christ, to Earth, in the power of the Holy Spirit. With His death and resurrection, the Lord Jesus defeated the devil, annulling the power of death, of which Lucifer makes use to enslave the people.⁵¹ Jesus Christ saved the entire Universe from the hatred of the Evil One.

However, people must welcome salvation, and this occurs by welcoming Jesus Christ, the Saviour, and by respecting His teachings.⁵² Many people, past and present, have not welcomed Him, and thus turned their back to their salvation. This is the root of the evils of the Earth: a large part of your humanity ignores, despises and fights Jesus Christ. They serve and worship all kinds of idols behind which the infernal forces act, seducing men and diverting their thoughts.

Jesus Christ founded the Church on Earth, but the Church is present and working in the whole Universe. You are not the only inhabitants of the cosmos, but you have many brothers and sisters, some of whom never rebelled against God and are, therefore, much more powerful than you in spirit and action.⁵³ Many of you do not know this because the rulers and religious leaders of your planet are silent about it. They have always hidden this truth from you because they fear confrontation with humanities that are more powerful. They are afraid of losing their political and religious power.

The Church gathers the believers in Jesus Christ of the whole Universe and guards His teachings. She is the people of God to whom the Lord has promised the new, pure and uncorrupted creation, which will be inaugurated at the end of times when Jesus Christ gloriously returns to Earth.

The whole Universe will see His returns. Jesus Christ will gather all men of all times and planets; He will judge them on the basis of their works. He will definitively separate the children of God from the children of Lucifer and introduce the righteous into the new creation. Lucifer and his followers will not enter; they will be left to their fate in the old creation, which by then will be destroyed.⁵⁴ Those who corrupted others will live forever immersed in corruption, the bloodthirsty in blood, those who caused hunger in insatiable hunger, the violent in violence and so on.

Lucifer has always corrupted everything and everyone on Earth and on other planets. He promises riches and honours, and perverse people worship him. He has even infiltrated in the Church and part of her is ruined. However, God has always protected the good part of the Church, and He has united her with His remnant people present in the Universe.

This is the “Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe”⁵⁵, a true and unquestionable reality, which will manifest herself in all her power; she is the only Church that will remain. She is destined to enter the new creation. Part of her are those who welcome Jesus Christ and offer themselves to Him through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, and those who live in integrity and in communion with the brothers and sisters of the Universe.

The times in which you live are the last times. Jesus Christ is at the door and time is running out. Only God the Father knows the exact time of His coming, but it will not be late. The humanity of the Earth is at the limit and the children of God suffer from persecutions by the devil. In these last times, God has called me to be at the head of His people in the whole Universe. I pave the way for my Saviour; I am the Precursor of the glorious coming of Christ. It is my responsibility to gather the children of God from every corner of the Universe so that they may join His Church. It is my task to protect the people of God from Lucifer's hatred. I will do it together with my angelic hosts and the Church of the whole Universe. No one will stop me.

The sentence for Lucifer and those who belong to him was written with the blood of Jesus Christ on the Cross and with His resurrection.⁵⁶ Now it must be enforced; only then will the Lord return. Jesus Christ left the Earth in His Ascension to Heaven, after having accomplished everything the Father had entrusted to Him. He will return to the Earth when His Church of the whole Universe will have accomplished what He has entrusted to her: to announce salvation to all men and to baptise all believers in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.⁵⁷

The words I address to you today are the words of the Precursor, and as such you must welcome them. They are a strong appeal to you in this phase of your history. I come to tell you that these times are grave. Your humanity is undergoing a strict exam by the Lord, and it is time for you to return to the true Triune God. Jesus Christ, the Second Person of the Most Holy Trinity, will lead you to the true God because He is God. There is no salvation without Him.

⁵⁶ See John 12,31

⁵⁷ See Mt 28,16-20

Look at what is happening on Earth. Who will pull you out of the turbid, deep waters in which you reel? Your false idols; the god of money; the rulers or the religious leaders? Human affections or the love you talk about so much and yet do not know? Who will snatch you from death? Look into yourselves. Ask yourselves to whom you have entrusted your life? If you are honest, you will recognise that you have little to rely on.

You are rightly saddened by the many victims of this pandemic. Yet, are you able to weep for the thousands of victims of war and hunger; for the persecuted; for the millions of abortions; for the raped and oppressed children; for the women killed in the name of love? No, you are cold and insensitive, and not just that; you even blame God for all this; you accuse Him of not caring about you. How about you, do you care about Him?

No, dear children, the cause of your problems is the devil and those who serve him and those who are indifferent both to God and to Lucifer. Many of you live for themselves, and their selfishness is their god. They turn away not to see their faults. Thus, evil thrives unhindered.

I call you to conversion. Implore the Most Holy Trinity to forgive the sins of the Earth and to awaken the consciences of those who still have a little bit of good will. It is not too late to change your destiny. God is ready to support you and to send you His instruments to help you. Remember Mary Most Holy, your Mother and Co-Redemptrix, the powerful Queen of the Universe who loves you and is always ready to hold out Her hand to you. Remember St. Joseph who protects you. Remember your Guardian Angels who defend you, and the Saints who love you and pray for you. Decide to become part of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe and you will be saved.

All viruses, such as the one that affects you now, all diseases, natural disasters and all that torments you, are the result of the incessant work of corruption of the devil and his followers. Know that evil generates the “disintegrating energy”, which alters the perfect laws of nature, generating monsters. God does not create monsters; it is Evil that deforms man and nature. It draws its power from the rebellion against God and from the refusal of His love, which are the greatest sins, the origin of all negativity. Just as Lucifer and his demons rebelled against, refused and betrayed God, many men have done from the beginning, blaspheming God and worshipping the devil for their interests. Their evil actions corrupt the Earth and sow evil and destruction. Therefore, disintegrating energy continues to spread on Earth, generating disease and death. On the contrary, from God and from His true children, extremely pure energy emanates: the “primary energy”, which generates, nourishes and saves the lives of men and creatures.⁵⁸

Now the Earth is saturated with disintegrating energy because there are not many true children of God. Therefore, it is necessary to return to the One and Triune God, through Jesus Christ, and unite with His Church of the whole Universe. The more children of God there are, the more the primary energy will oppose the disintegrating energy. You need the communion with the brothers and sisters of the Universe, many of whom are very powerful in spirit and can help you with their prayers and their love. You will not be able to save yourselves without their help.

I repeat to you that these are the last times. God has ordered me to be at the head of His hosts of light. I ANNOUNCE TO YOU THAT TODAY THE GREAT AND FINAL BATTLE AGAINST THE INFERNAL FORCES BEGINS. The Earth will be the scenario of the final and inevitable confrontation. God wants me to guide His Church of the whole Universe resolutely towards the victory over Lucifer and his hosts. I will do it. Now it is up to you to decide what to do and on which side to be. If you decide to serve the true God, you will be loved and protected by Him, and you will not lack anything. If you reject Him, you will face an unfortunate destiny.

⁵⁸ For the “primary and the disintegrating energy” see, “Rewriting History—Vol. II—The Universe and Its Inhabitants”, pp. 30-33, <https://www.lucidellesodo.it/en/>

Do not delude yourselves into thinking that you can remain neutral. Everyone, without exception, will have to choose between the One and Triune God and Lucifer. Nothing will be left in the middle. Think, pray and decide. I promise you my protection and that of my angels so that you may decide for life and not for death. Remember that the time available to you is not infinite. God is the Lord of time and can end it at any moment. Therefore, hurry up before it is too late.

12 April 2020, Message of Jesus, Holy Easter of the Resurrection

Remember that those who follow Satan are always united among themselves; they feed each other with evilness and hatred. You, on the other hand, are called to give your life for all those who do good, just as I did for you. That is very important. Otherwise, you will not be able to win the battle since you are few in number, but many people will be able to join you in spirit. It does not matter if you do not know them. I will connect all the good that is accomplished on Earth with the good that is done in the Universe. In this way, you will do something great together with Me.

I Entrust to You All the Good that is Done on Earth

“Dearest Children, My People,

Rejoice for My victory over death and the underworld! I triumphed on the Cross and you praise Me as the immolated Lamb. I tell you that you, too, are an immolated people. However, I do not mean something terrible or bloody. I am speaking about the immolation as the offering that elevates, redeems and saves humanity: immolation as sanctification and consecration. You are an immolated people for the salvation of humanity.

Children, you see the state of the humanity of the Earth: it is a wounded humanity, but its wounds are not glorious; on the contrary, they are filled with bitterness, loneliness, discouragement. Yet, I have given My life for this humanity and for the whole humanity of the Universe to heal your wounds. Nevertheless, humanity continues to reject Me, and I can do nothing for those who reject Me because I respect your freedom.

You have been told that this is the time of the great and ultimate battle and that Earth is the planet on which this battle will be fought.⁵⁹ Here, Satan has his stronghold. Now he must be driven out of his hiding place and be cast to hell forever. I will fight this battle and you will fight it with Me. Remember that at the end of times Lucifer will have to face Me; once again, he will have to stand face to face with Me, as he stood in the days of My Passion. It will be My final triumph and that of all My people.

Children, in this time of struggle, I would like to ask a few things from you:

- First of all, I want you to be aware of your responsibility; know that, from now on, you have to go beyond yourselves. I have told you many times not to worry about your problems and difficulties, for I will solve them. Give your life to Me so that I may make use of you.
- Be aware that you have the responsibility to nurture, elevate and support all those who do good and work for peace and charity. Today I want to entrust to you all the good that is accomplished on Earth. The good that is done by everyone, even by those who are not fully aware of doing it. There are many good men and women who work according to the divine laws, but they do not know Me. They are righteous because they said “yes” at the moment of conception; yet, after that they incarnated into different realities. Nevertheless, they do good, seek peace and help others.
- Today, there is much talk about solidarity. Instead, I want to speak to you about charity⁶⁰, which is the pure love that I brought to Earth. I entrust to you all the good that is done on Earth, so that general solidarity gives way to true charity, which flourishes only in My pure Love. I entrust to My people all the good that is present in the world. Offer the good and elevate it in every celebration, in all your personal and community prayers. Pray for the peace workers and the charity workers. Give strength to those who work on the ground and do not have the same opportunities as you. I want you to add the missing part so that the good may increase more and more on Earth.

⁵⁹ See Message of St. Michael the Archangel of 2 April 2020 “Appeal to the Humanity of the Earth”

⁶⁰ Charity in the sense of love for others.

- Remember that those who follow Satan are always united among themselves; they feed each other with evilness and hatred. You, on the other hand, are called to give your life for all those who do good, just as I did for you. That is very important. Otherwise, you will not be able to win the battle since you are few in number, but many people will be able to join you in spirit. It does not matter if you do not know them. I will connect all the good that is accomplished on Earth with the good that is done in the Universe. In this way, you will do something great together with Me.
- I ask you not to judge anything, children, not even what looks evil to you. Leave all judgment to Me and concentrate on the good. Do not look at evil anymore, for you are called to see the beauty that exists on your planet. Many people think that there is nothing beautiful on Earth anymore, but that is not so. Recognise all the beauty of God on this planet, because I continue to give you the sun, the flowers, the fruit, etc. Even though the humanity of the Earth does no longer deserve anything, I continue to give you all you need.
- I also continue to give you children of God. In this time, in fact, many chosen children are being born. Their spirit, their souls are great and capable of recognising the good and put it into practice. These children grow with your love and your help. They are the children of the new people and I entrust them to you. They are your children and I send them for you. It does not matter how long it takes for them to grow, for their very presence will make the Earth flourish.

Children, these are serious times. The humanity of the Earth is suffering and struggling and it needs solid support. The Christians are sad because their churches are closed and empty, but the churches are full of My power.⁶¹ This Easter, I have sent you to all the churches in spirit. I have sent My people of the whole Universe to fill the empty churches of the Earth, and the churches were filled with My Power and My Love.

Children, even if you feel little, weak and small in number, in reality, you are a power in Me, and I send you where I want; I make use of you for My glory and for the good of all humanity. Have courage, children of Mine, Redemption must be brought to completion; everything must reach fullness. My Church will complete with Me what I have begun on Earth.

As always, I entrust you to My Mother, to St. Joseph and to St. Raphael, who is your priest. Remain united with the seven Archangels, especially St. Michael, the Commander to whom I entrust you. To him I have given the power to gather from the whole Universe My people that My Mother generates and that I will introduce into the new creation.

I bless you, I send you to exorcise the Earth and to sow My Love. Love all the good people on Earth so that there will finally be only one flock and one Shepherd.

I bless you and I protect you, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

⁶¹ He refers to the closure of all churches and public places to contain the spread of the Covid-19 pandemic, which has been afflicting the Earth since the beginning of 2020.

19 April 2020, Message of Jesus, Divine Mercy Sunday

When I say that Redemption must be brought to completion, I mean that both mercy, which I have already obtained for you, and justice, which is only partial because I have not yet returned to Earth, must be fully accomplished. Now, mercy must also leave room for justice. This is the time in which divine justice must come forward as you have never seen it before, because everything is moving towards fulfilment, even mercy and justice.

God's Mercy and Justice

"Dearest Children,

I bless you with all My Love so that you may be replenished with God's mercy. Some time ago, I told you that I have to return to complete Redemption.⁶² I want to explain this to you.

The Father sent Me to the Earth for the good of the whole Universe and for all humanity to obtain mercy. Mercy is the possibility, granted to man by God, to overcome sin and every obstacle with the aim of returning to a profound relationship with God, which was compromised by original sin.

Mercy was particularly necessary for the rebellious and the undecided humanities, but also for the faithful humanities who, despite not having committed original sin, were waiting for the remaining humanity to return to a living relationship with God. Otherwise, the faithful humanities would not have accepted to live in communion with those who rebel against God, reject Him and build walls against Him.

Therefore, mercy constitutes a large part of the work of Redemption. It allows you, if you want it and decide freely, to live a true and profound relationship with the Most Holy Trinity. However, Redemption also involves another important part: justice. I came among you to obtain mercy for you and to accomplish all justice.⁶³ Justice consists in separating definitively light from darkness and in dividing the children of God from the children of Lucifer.

Through My death and resurrection, I condemned the devil, the prince of evil, and thus I accomplished the first great act of justice. Those who worship and willingly and freely serve Lucifer, who has been condemned, are also condemned for participating in the condemnation of whom they have chosen to serve. That is the second act of justice, the second death for man.⁶⁴ I came to liberate you from death, heritage of original sin, but a large part of humanity continues to choose death and, by doing so, enters the second death.

When I say that Redemption must be brought to completion, I mean that both mercy, which I have already obtained for you, and justice, which is only partial because I have not yet returned to Earth, must be fully accomplished. Now, mercy must also leave room for justice. This is the time in which divine justice must come forward as you have never seen it before, because everything is moving towards fulfilment, even mercy and justice.

Today you proclaim and celebrate Divine Mercy and that is right. Remember, though, that there is no mercy without justice, nor justice without mercy. They go hand in hand as they are both part of My work of Redemption.

Nevertheless, mercy and justice are also present in the work of the Father, which is Creation. If you choose to love and serve Him in the instant He creates you, He gives you His mercy to enable you to overcome the sins you will commit in your earthly life. However, if you

⁶³ See Mt 5,17; Lk 16,1-9

reject God at the moment of conception, you will have to face His justice. Mercy and Justice are also present in the work of Sanctification of the Holy Spirit. He who accepts to be sanctified, that is, consecrated, by the Holy Spirit, will receive mercy, but, at the same time, he will become an instrument of justice; in other words, he will become the sign of contradiction of which the Gospel speaks.⁶⁵

The true children of God are signs of contradiction, instruments of divine justice, because light and darkness must separate before them. This is a very important part of your action. This is not exorcism but something more. Exorcism, as you know it, is performed in specific circumstances with particular formulas to give a specific order to the demon. Justice, however, acts continuously, whether you are aware of it or not. If you are immersed in God, wherever you go you will separate light from darkness, falsehood from truth.

You often struggle within your limits; you think that you are doing too little for Me, and you would like to change yourselves. Yet, you cannot do that because I am the One who transforms you. The only thing you have to do is to keep pace with My grace. I ask you to completely remove the mental pattern that leads you to think that you know what you should or should not do for Me. In reality, you do not know, because it is I who communicate My will to you, in proportion to what you are able to do.

I know what you can or cannot do. I accept your limits, and I respect them because I know that you are fragile creatures. However, you do not accept them and keep fighting against your limits with all your strength. You try to impose on yourselves, on others and even on Me, the image you have created of yourselves, of what you should do to please God, how much you should pray and so on. However, that is not what I ask of you; I only want you to make yourselves available to Me. This is a different thing: you have to open up to Me so that I may fully enter into you to guide you and communicate to you what you have to do step by step and without forcing anything.

Therefore, I invite you to free yourselves from your ideas of spiritual life, because you do not need them anymore. All you can and ought to do is to be always available to My will. Then, I will be able to communicate to you, in the depths of your spirit, the right thing to do in every situation, and you will feel My strong impulse and you will follow it.

Do not make plans about what is good to do and how to do it, how much to pray and how, what to do the next month or year. All this is no longer of use; it is part of the old creation and of the old man, who wants to plan everything rationally. It is no longer time for this. I need people who are extremely flexible, capable of letting themselves be guided deeply and in every moment by Me. This is what I expect from you. Before Me, no one is better or worse, but you are all capable of doing what I ask of you because I only entrust to you what you are able to accomplish.

I give you My blessing so that My Mercy may penetrate you completely. Feel completely forgiven and enveloped in mercy. Also, consider yourselves instruments of My Justice, signs of contradiction for the entire humanity of the Universe, but mainly for that of this Earth. Here My Justice is already taking place in the midst of the events of the world; the children of God are already being separated from the children of Lucifer, who refuse to be children of God.

I bless you with all My merciful Love; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

30 April 2020, Message of St. Peter the Apostle

The time you live in is the obligatory passage towards the fulfilment of human history. It is an intermediate dimension, which is situated between the past and the future. The old creation is dying and the new one is about to be born. Everything is transforming rapidly. The people of God, His Church of the Universe, is the motor of this transformation. God is acting through His people to bring to light all existing things in order to promote the good and force evil to draw back. Your testimony must therefore be centred on the second coming of Christ and the new creation.

Announce the Glorious Return of Christ

“Dearest children, I bless you. You are all My children as well as my beloved brothers and sister. I would like to explain a few things that are important for you.

As you know, the preaching of us Apostles was the testimony of what we had experienced.⁶⁶ We proclaimed that Jesus Christ, the Son of God, incarnated on Earth, died, was resurrected and ascended to Heaven. This was the core of our preaching.⁶⁷

We had to deal with the Jewish mentality of that time, our religion, which refused the Most Holy Trinity. Jesus was considered a blasphemer because He proclaimed Himself the Son of God.⁶⁸ It was fundamental for us to highlight the relationship between the Old Testament and the Gospel, between the Old and the New Alliance. Jesus represented, in fact, the accomplishment of all promises of the prophets to the people of Israel; the culmination of the path of our people. From the people of the Old Alliance, the people of the New

⁶⁶ See 1 John 1,1-4

⁶⁷ See Acts 2,14-41

⁶⁸ See Mt 26,62-68

Alliance was to come forth; a new, redeemed people, generated by the sacrifice on the Cross.⁶⁹

We were aware of affirming something extraordinary, a novelty that would upset the mentality of our nationals and the pagans we came in contact with. To announce that God had come down to Earth and had incarnated was not a completely new event for them: other pagan religions contemplated the descent and incarnation of some gods among men. However, to affirm that the Son of God had descended to Earth, had died on the Cross for our sins, was resurrected and ascended to Heaven was something unheard.

Our announcement, however, was not limited to this. We knew, in fact, that Jesus would return to Earth, and therefore we openly proclaimed His second coming. For us Apostles the return of Jesus was an imminent fact, and it would have occurred if the Church had fully responded and humanity converted, which did not happen.⁷⁰

Almost everyone thinks that the first Church was perfectly united and acting in solidarity. Yet, this idyllic image does not match the truth. There were many saints among us, that is true, but the first divisions began to appear in our Christian communities because the devil had already begun his work of destruction. Many joined and became part of the Church, but not all of them were sincere, especially those who were more learned. They were looking for positions of honour in the midst of simple and less educated people as the first Christians were. They confused the little ones with their false wisdom and the imposition of outdated traditions.⁷¹

The people of Israel, to whom we preached and who had received many promises from God, accepted neither Christ nor our testimony. The religious and political leaders stirred up the people against us, despite the miracles and signs that accompanied us, just as they had done with Jesus. The Romans and the pagans in general considered us dangerous revolutionaries or utopians without future.

⁶⁹ See Lk 24; Acts 7; 1 Peter 1,10-12

⁷⁰ See 2 Peter 3,1-13

⁷¹ See Acts 15,1-29

As we announced the imminent return of the Lord, which, however, did not take place, we were considered visionaries and fanatics by our enemies, many of whom had already infiltrated our communities. Thus, gradually silence descended on Christ's return. It remained a marginal event, placed in an indefinite future, awaited only by few and rarely discussed by preachers. On the contrary, whoever announces the return of the Lord is considered a catastrophist, a millennialist, etc.

Christ's glorious return, however, is not a fairy-tale, nor a very far event.⁷² In fact, you are living in the historic period preceding the coming of the Lord Jesus. You are in the last times. You are immersed in a very strong dynamic that embraces the entire Universe as the whole creation is taking action in preparation for Jesus' return.

Therefore, it is no longer enough to announce that Jesus Christ incarnated, died and rose again. This is not an absolute novelty anymore; the fundamental principles of Christianity are relatively known to most of the humanity of the Earth. Now you are asked to firmly announce the glorious return of Christ.

It is not even enough for you to affirm, on the basis of the Holy Scriptures, that Jesus is the Christ that has come to Earth. In the light of what has been revealed to you, you must show the people how the great prophets of the Old Testament already announced these times and the new creation. Even though the images they used were suitable for the people of those days, and thus sound unusual to the people of this time, the words of the ancient prophets clearly outline the new creation prepared for the people of God.⁷³

⁷² See 2 Peter 1,16-21

⁷³ See Isa 11,1-9

Now, you have to show the connection between past announcements and what is happening before your eyes today. Many think that the ancient prophecies fulfilled with the first coming of Christ, but that is not so. Jesus has to come back to inaugurate the new creation where time, space and history will be completely different and where everything will be perfectly fulfilled. The ancient prophets also spoke about this. The Holy Spirit will help you understand the relevance of every word of the Bible for this time.

The time you live in is the obligatory passage towards the fulfilment of human history. It is an intermediate dimension, which is situated between the past and the future. The old creation is dying and the new one is about to be born.⁷⁴ Everything is transforming rapidly. The people of God, His Church of the Universe, is the motor of this transformation.⁷⁵ God is acting through His people to bring to light all existing things in order to promote the good and force evil to draw back.⁷⁶ Your testimony must therefore be centred on the second coming of Christ and the new creation.

Many men and women did not convert to Christ in the past and will not convert now. They have refused the Father from the moment of conception, and thus they have not been instructed by Him. The Father instructs you at the moment of conception, placing the seal of His Son, Jesus Christ, on you. In this way, you receive a teaching that goes far beyond that of any magisterium. It remains imprinted in you; thus, when you grow and your intelligence is able to understand, you immediately orient yourselves towards Jesus Christ.⁷⁷

⁷⁵ The whole programme that we have announced in the past years is directed towards the recapitulation of all things in Christ, through the Immaculate Mother, in His Church of the Whole Universe.

⁷⁶ See Message of Jesus of 12 April 2020, "I Entrust to You all the Good that is Accomplished on Earth", published on this website.

⁷⁷ See John 6,43-47

Unfortunately, for a large part of your humanity all this does not take place; not because it is impossible, but because it is difficult. In fact, this part of humanity lacks the initial instructions of the Father, having refused God at the moment of conception. In addition, there is the spirit of the world, the tepidness of the Christians of the Earth who are no longer an example and do not know how to speak about Jesus Christ and the action of evil who seeks to mislead every individual.⁷⁸

Nevertheless, in this time something important has happened on Earth: the “Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe” has manifested herself; she is present, alive and working on your planet. She is the Church founded by Jesus Christ, and she is as Jesus wanted it: a Church that brings salvation to the whole Universe and does not focus on earthly matters but announces the realities of Heaven.⁷⁹

For the love, the sacrifices and the prayers of this Church, the Almighty Lord is sending new men and women on Earth. In this time, special children are born among you, who have said “yes” at the moment of conception and are prepared for the new times. The seal of Christ is imprinted on them, and they totally belong to the Immaculate Mother, Queen and Coredemptrix. The Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe, present on Earth, welcomes them and helps them grow. They will not, as often happened to the saints, live in solitude and persecution. On the contrary, they will shine like stars among the people of God, loved and protected by the powerful Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe.⁸⁰

Therefore, be brave, brothers and sisters! Announce Christ’s return and speak about the wonders God is accomplishing now. Even if you feel little and are few in number, you are still strong, because you act in communion with the immense people of the whole Universe who love and support you.

I am with you and I bless you together with the Apostles of all times; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

30 May 2020, Message of the Holy Spirit, Vigil of Pentecost

In the deep silence of your being, when you bow before God and recognise to be humble creatures, I generate life in you. Thus, knowledge blossoms and I fully act in you. The same is true for a people: if an entire people lives immersed in creative silence and wants to know Me, I make Myself known because I am in you; I am with you; I act above you and you are able to know Me. The rivers of living water, of which Jesus speaks, not only flow from the hearts of those who believe in Christ, but also from the bosom of an entire people. This is what I expect from you: that rivers of living water may flow from the bosom of this Church and wet the desert of your humanity.

Knowledge Is Love

“Dearest Children,

You have come to this important day in which you remember My descent on the Church, the fruit of the Sacrifice of Jesus Christ. Before that, I could only fully work in a few individuals, the prophets and the saints, but not in the whole people. After the death and resurrection of Jesus, I could descend on the whole people of God to sanctify them, to remind each one and all of Jesus’ teachings and of the profound teachings you already received at the moment of conception if you said ‘yes’ to God.

Jesus said clearly that the world cannot accept Me because it neither sees Me nor knows Me.⁸¹ You may recognise the truth of His words: the world does not see Me or know Me; it cannot receive Me because it does not love Me, nor does it seek Me, nor does it implore Me. No one can know what he does not love because to know means to love: true knowledge, not rational, scholastic or scientific knowledge, blossoms in love. Love is nourished by silence; not the dead silence of the world, but CREATIVE SILENCE; the silence in which I act as Creator to give you life and renew it in you.

In the deep silence of your being, when you bow before God and recognise to be humble creatures, I generate life in you. Thus, knowledge blossoms and I fully act in you. The same is true for a people: if an entire people lives immersed in creative silence and wants to know Me, I make Myself known because I am in you; I am with you; I act above you and you are able to know Me. The rivers of living water, of which Jesus speaks⁸², flow not only from the hearts of those who believe in Christ but also from the bosom of an entire people. This is what I expect from you: that rivers of living water may flow from the bosom of this Church and wet the desert of your humanity.

Children, as Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe you have consecrated this year, 2020, to Me; therefore, do not be surprised about what is happening on Earth.⁸³ God confuses the projects of the peoples⁸⁴, and I have intervened with power to disrupt humanity to the roots. I must save you from the grave danger that comes from the hearts of men, from the wickedness of the powerful, from those of the low Universe who are plotting to come down to Earth to conquer, kill, rob and annihilate the people of God. Now the Earth is suffering and weeping. The powerful are confused; they do not know what is going to happen. Satan himself is trembling because he sees that the Lord, God Almighty, can overturn in a second all his plans, elaborated over millennia.

Children, I ask you to continuously consecrate the sick and the victims of this pandemic so that they become martyrs for the salvation of the Earth. I would never have wanted this situation, but the wickedness of man made it possible, and I have allowed it to disrupt the plans of the rulers of the Earth.

⁸² John 7,37-39

⁸³ He refers to the serious Covid-19 coronavirus pandemic, which has claimed thousands of victims on Earth since the beginning of 2020.

⁸⁴ Gen 11,1-9

Pray and offer to God those who suffer and the victims of this virus so that their sacrifice may not be in vain. If this Church does this, the suffering and death of so many people becomes salvific. Although not all suffer or die in a Christian way, if they are helped, offered to God and sanctified, their suffering and death becomes a martyrdom that cries out before God. The Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe, when united and offered to God through Mary, the Coredemptrix, can help many to redeem themselves, showing the path towards salvation.

Unfortunately, what will continue to happen on Earth will be very serious because this humanity does not want to change. However, this must not scare you because I protect you and keep evil away from you. What I ask of you today is faithfulness to all that has been given to you, faithfulness to the life I give you. Never betray the life of God so that your life may not be transformed into death. Be faithful to the life you have received and it will flourish in you; it will flourish even in the desert.

I am the One who speaks out of the fire. Moses reminded the people of Israel in the desert of this when he said: *"Then the Lord spoke to you out of the fire."*⁸⁵ Yes, I am the fire from where the Most Holy Trinity speaks to you, and I send you like torches of My Fire to set the Earth on fire. I send you to the lost and suffering children of God, who are weeping and dying. They need light; they need My Fire. You, too, will become the Church that speaks out of the fire, out of the fire of My Love.

Be simple, serene, strong and mature. With the maturity of Christ, accept every trial, not as a misfortune that strikes you, but as an opportunity that God grants you to improve and strengthen yourselves

by exercising all the virtues and to get involved and become new creatures.⁸⁶

I support you and I love you. I descend on you with the Trinitarian power; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

⁸⁶ See 2 Pet 1,1-18

11 June 2020, Message of St. John the Apostle, Feast of Corpus Christi⁸⁷

In every Holy Mass, you offer yourselves to God and anticipate the events, because in Jesus' Sacrifice all that was, that is and that will be is consumed. All evil is consumed and the devil's power is taken away. That is why, Lucifer hates the Eucharist and has always tried, by all means, to profane it. He knows the power of this Sacrament and the power of the participation of the people in the Eucharistic Sacrifice. Your participation is the only possibility you have to defeat Evil. Without the help of Jesus, who physically enters into you, through the Eucharist, you would not have the possibility to cross that horrible, arid desert, full of snakes and scorpions, which is life on Earth. What help would you receive without the Eucharist?

The Last Supper of the Lord

"Dearest Brothers and Sisters,

I bless you on this great day for the Church of God, spread in the Universe. On Earth, you particularly remember the institution of the Eucharist at the Last Supper. The Body and Blood of Christ are venerated in the form of the Host.

However, besides the institution of the Eucharist, which is in itself a huge event, something equally great occurred at the Last Supper: the beginning of the Passion of Jesus. It was then that Jesus offered Himself, even before He did it on the Calvary. He transformed the bread and the wine, which were on the table, into His Body and Blood. He offered them to us Apostles, before we were dispersed and overwhelmed by our human fears. At the Last Supper, Jesus offered Himself and faced Lucifer who was already present in Judas Iscariot. He gave him the permission to do what he intended to do. With the words that you read in the Gospel, *"What you are about to do, do quickly,"*⁸⁸ Jesus gave Lucifer the permission without which the devil could never have acted against God.

During that distressing Supper, in which Jesus announced that one of us would betray Him, and in which He made us drink His Blood, expressing clearly that it was shed for us and for everyone, we were trembling. We were beginning to understand that what Jesus had foretold about His Passion was coming true. With the act of washing our feet, the Lord showed us how deep the love of God had sunk to serve man, but, at the same time, He showed us that we also have to serve others as He served us.⁸⁹

That was a terrible night, in which we trembled with amazement and fear about the things that were happening and were going to happen; we had not yet received the Holy Spirit, and everything filled us with terror. When we saw the guards coming to the garden of Gethsemane, we understood that Jesus' journey as man was about to end. However, in my spirit I felt that something even greater was about to begin. At the Last Supper, Jesus asked us to renew, in His memory, the transformation of bread and wine into His Body and Blood as He had done. By saying this, He gave us and the priests of all times the power to do the same, incessantly, until the end of times.

After supper, before we went to the garden of Gethsemane, Jesus told Me to pick up His Mother and remain with Her until He died. I knew that Jesus was going to die and that His words would come true, even though, humanly, I rejected this reality. I went to pick up the Mother, and that was a moment of deep sorrow for me. Our eyes crossed in a deep silence. We both knew what was taking place. Our Mother suffered as Jesus suffered, and I did not know how to comfort Her; I had no human means to comfort Her. She was the one who comforted me with Her power. In fact, She always comforted us in every trial.

On that tragic but also extraordinary night, Jesus left us His Body and His Blood, which you now venerate in the Eucharist. It is also venerated in Heaven by the Angels and the Saints.

Every time you celebrate the Eucharist, you continue what we, the Apostles, began, and you renew the immense miracle of the transformation of bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ. They are the only true nourishment given to the people of the Earth. You have not completely understood what it means. You do not know how much the children of God are suffering on the planets where Lucifer acts and where there is no Eucharist. By God's grace, however, the Seven great Archangels, the priests of the Central Nucleus and the new priests fill this great emptiness.

When you elevate the Host and the Chalice in your celebrations, you spiritually nourish many brothers and sisters, even those who are on other planets of the low Universe where the Eucharist is not present. Therefore, I ask you to be aware that you perpetuate in time what Jesus performed in the Last Supper and we Apostles continued to do after Him. Every time when we celebrated the Sacrifice of Christ in the first Christian communities, we Apostles revived the same event of the Last Supper, and we felt deep joy and thankfulness towards Christ. We could feel the power of the Resurrection. Each of your celebrations should not only be the participation in the Sacrifice of Christ but also in the power of the Resurrection for the benefit of many souls.

In every Holy Mass, you offer yourselves to God and anticipate the events because in Jesus' Sacrifice everything that was, is and will be is consumed. All evil is consumed and the devil's power is taken away. That is why, Lucifer hates the Eucharist and has always tried, by all means, to profane it. He knows the power of this Sacrament and the power of the participation of the people in the Eucharistic Sacrifice.

Your participation is the only possibility you have to defeat evil. Without the help of Jesus, who physically enters into you through the Eucharist, you would not have the possibility to cross that horrible, arid desert, full of snakes and scorpions, which is life on Earth. What help would you receive without the Eucharist?

Without the true participation of the priest and the people in the Sacrifice of Christ, the Eucharist cannot fully unfold its effects, as it happens with Baptism when the offering of one's life to God is missing. This applies to all Sacraments. The participation to the Holy Mass is important, but it is equally important to receive the Eucharist within you. The sole participation does not give you the same power that comes from receiving the living Christ in you.

Do you understand what it means to receive Christ in you with the Trinitarian power and the primary energy of the Universe, which He holds within Himself? Since the people approach the Eucharist coldly, absently and hastily, they cannot access this power. It is as if there was a veil, like the one in the temple of Jerusalem, which prevented the people from seeing the Holy of Holies. All this is partly caused by the priests, who do not celebrate the Holy Mass as they should because they do not offer themselves to God, and partly by the people who also behave like this.

You, however, are asked to thoroughly understand what it means to participate in the Holy Mass and to receive the Eucharist. It is not a rite, a formality, or even a precept: it is your life; it is the nourishment that God gives you, "real food and real drink", as Jesus said.⁹⁰

You must become a living Eucharist, otherwise your mission will fail. If you are not this on Earth, what are you then? Talkers, preachers, fanatics or members of a religious confession? What are you?

⁹⁰ See John 6,55: "For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in them."

In many churches, convents and monasteries the Eucharist is mainly profaned by the coldness of the people who participate in the celebrations. This is something very serious. Many religious people are simply becoming members of a Congregation, doing more for the Congregation than they do for the Lord. This must not happen to you. The Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe is important. It is a fundamental instrument, but it is an instrument. First comes God and then His instrument. Do not make the mistake of placing the Church above God.

I bless you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

After the words of St. John, St. Barnabas also wanted to add his testimony. His feast is celebrated today, 11 June.

This is the task of the Church, beyond all charity work. The foundation of all action of the Church consists in making the great miracle of the Transubstantiation actual in every Holy Mass. This powerful miracle nourishes not only the Earth, but also the whole Universe, for not a single drop of Christ’s Blood, shed on your altars, is lost.

11 June 2020, Message of St. Barnabas the Apostle

“I would like to add my experience to what has been said. I did not participate in the Last Supper, nor did St. Paul with whom I worked for a long time. Nevertheless, at the Eucharistic celebrations of our first Christian communities, our faith and that of the people made the Sacrifice of Christ actual. We had the same feelings that the Apostles had had at the Last Supper: the anguish caused by the human betrayal; the suffering of Jesus on the Cross; the power of the Resurrection. This must also take place within you. You, too, have the possibility to feel, in every celebration, the power of the first celebration of Christ at the Last Supper.

The Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe should perpetuate that power and not repeat a rite. It should make Christ's living presence felt, for it is Him who acts in each Holy Mass, renewing the immense miracle of the transformation of the bread and wine into His Body and Blood.

This is the task of the Church, beyond all charity work. The foundation of all action of the Church consists in making the great miracle of the Transubstantiation actual in every Holy Mass.⁹¹ This powerful miracle nourishes not only the Earth, but also the whole Universe, for not a single drop of Christ's Blood, shed on your altars, is lost.

When you gather to celebrate the Holy Mass, imagine being in the Cenacle where Jesus celebrated His Last Supper and feel just as we felt: Apostles of the second generation. This is what we experienced, also through the experiences of John, Peter and the other Apostles, who were able to transmit to all of us the love for the living Christ. I ask you to do the same, in the name of many unfortunate people who do not have the grace you have to celebrate the Holy Mass every day. Your responsibility is great but your joy must also be great.

In every Holy Mass, feel the suffering of Christ on the Cross, which renews itself in every celebration, and the betrayal, which was not only that of Judas Iscariot but of a large part of humanity. However, do not allow the suffering of the Cross to be greater than the joy of the Resurrection. The Sacrifice of the Cross completes itself with the power of the Resurrection, otherwise it remains an unhealthy suffering.

⁹¹ Transubstantiation: the doctrine that the whole substance of the bread and wine changes into the substance of the body and blood of Christ when consecrated in the Eucharist. (The Collins English Dictionary)

The Blood of Christ was shed for the forgiveness of all sins, not only of original sin. Jesus paid for the sins of the progenitors and restored the relationship between God and humanity, but He also shed His Blood for your personal sins. He loved each one of you personally and gave His life for each of you and for all.

You can be sure that the Blood Jesus shed on the Cross and on every altar cancels all your sins. This helps you understand what the Resurrection is: the victory over death and sin, which causes death. Therefore, I told you that the power of the Resurrection of Christ must always be present as the complement to the Sacrifice of the Cross. The Cross must not prevail over the Resurrection or vice versa, but there must be a balance between them. When Jesus comes into you with His Body and Blood, you should feel immersed in a regenerating bath and perceive the power of the Trinitarian action in you. Do not forget that not only Jesus comes into you through the Eucharist, but also the whole Most Blessed Trinity.

Also, remember that Mary Most Holy is both example and instrument for the Church because no human being has ever participated, and no one will ever participate like Her in the Sacrifice of the Son of God. The Holy Mother can communicate to you, with Her omnipotence, the true participation in the Eucharistic Sacrifice. By learning from Her and with Her, you will also participate in the Sacrifice and the Resurrection of Christ.

I bless you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

At the end of our conversation with St. John and St. Barnabas, we asked the Mother of God to give us Her blessing.

11 June 2020, Blessing of Mary Most Holy

“I am always with you. My task as Mother, Queen and Coredemptrix is to help you experience in all your trials and sufferings the victory of Jesus’ Resurrection. I bless you together with the whole Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

24 June 2020, Message of Mary Most Holy, Vigil of the anniversary of the apparitions of the Queen of Peace in Medjugorje

Only My Son, Jesus, can save this humanity. Just as the Holy Spirit descended and overshadowed Me, He will descend on this planet to prepare the way for My Son who will return. Time is getting short. The Father expects from His Church of the Universe, especially from you, a strong commitment to help the men of the Earth to re-emerge from the chaos in which they have fallen, from the darkness that is oppressing them.

Rebuilding the Humanity of the Earth

“Dearest Children,

Six months have passed since the beginning of this year, in which you have seen many things change on Earth. They have been hard months for this humanity but also for the Low Universe, which has been strongly affected by the events on your planet. In fact, whatever happens in the Low Universe affects the Earth and vice versa. The whole creation is waiting for the events on Earth, which is an important planet in the plans of God.

You have consecrated this year to the Holy Spirit, and He will act powerfully on Earth to rebuild this humanity. The pandemic that affects you is not only a disease, but also a real metamorphosis for the Earth.⁹² God did not want this pandemic, but He allowed it. Through it, He decisively intervened to put many things right, which must no longer be as they used to be. Even humanity cannot remain the same as before. Those who are of good have understood that it takes very little to destroy a global system, developed over millennia of history. This must be clear especially to you who are the Church of Jesus Christ on Earth.⁹³

How will the Holy Spirit rectify and rebuild this humanity? He will do it through the Church, His people, whom the Most Holy Trinity has been preparing for a long time. From the coming of Jesus to the Earth until today, God never stopped preparing generations of righteous people whose holiness lives on. You have inherited the holiness, the sacrifice, the prayers and the tears of many saints. Now it is your turn to help the Earth to straighten up and rediscover the presence of God and the meaning of life.

Only My Son, Jesus, can save this humanity. Just as the Holy Spirit descended and overshadowed Me⁹⁴, He will descend on this planet to prepare the way for My Son who will return. Time is getting short. The Father expects from His Church of the Universe, especially from you, a strong commitment to help the men of the Earth to re-emerge from the chaos in which they have fallen and from the darkness that is oppressing them.

Lucifer has greatly intensified his action together with the Confederation of the Light and the Illuminati of the Earth. He knows that he does not have much time left. Therefore, God also wants His people to intensify their action. He expects this Church to be vigilant and present in all events that affect and shock this humanity.

What can you do? Live a simple, silent and profound life, immersed in God, that may help your humanity to change from its roots. God does not act with violence to transform His creatures. His love knocks at the door; He does not knock it down.⁹⁵ He makes life blossom from within, in silence, sometimes in secrecy, which is not passiveness but ⁹³ In all messages and in our publications the term Church refers solely to the "Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe" to which we belong.

union with God's life that is born in the depth of the heart. A human being is born in the depth of a woman, just as a plant is born in the depth of the earth. Likewise, in the depth and silence of God a new people is born. Therefore, silence will be your instrument to make life flourish, and it will also be your greatest defence against the evil one.

Children, Satan is afraid of silence. When silence is full of God, he no longer has the means to enter into you. Silence becomes like a wall before the devil. I am speaking of the deep, creative, virginal silence, which has been explained to you many times.⁹⁶ Living in this silence does not mean that you must not speak and bear witness. It means that, in this time, your testimony must take on a greater dimension: it must come forth from the depth of your being where God lives. Give room to God within you and allow Him to speak, witness and act through you.

A great task is given to you and the whole Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe because My Son's glorious return is neither a tale nor magic. It has to be prepared with the sweat and the tears of many children of God. I am not saying this to frighten you, but I want you to be concrete. To be people who are contemplative and mystically united with God does not mean to live on clouds. Those who sincerely want to serve God must know that they will clash with reality as it is. However, you must not be afraid of reality but go through it with the light of God and with His power.

The Father will again intervene powerfully on Earth. With this pandemic, you have had only a little taste of what can happen on Earth. It will not necessarily be something catastrophic as God wants to change the life of men to the better. Unfortunately, the reaction of Satan and his followers to the action of God always causes evil to prevail, because there are not many children of God who offer themselves to Jesus Christ. Nevertheless, God will add the missing part. He is omnipotent.

I will also use the omnipotence that God has given to Me. Know though, children, that when a people lives deeply united with God, when all the members live in peace in the same spirit, that people will also become omnipotent. It is the omnipotence that comes from an unshakable faith. Faith is omnipotent because it can work what neither reason nor human strength can do. Therefore, be aware that a united people with a solid faith becomes omnipotent.

Thus, support the omnipotence of God and Mine with the omnipotence of your faith and be aware of all the graces that God has given to you. I invite you to look inside yourselves to discover the good and beautiful things that God has placed in you. Each of you is a precious pearl in the crown of My King. If any of you were missing, it would be a great loss indeed.

Try to see the beautiful things in you, and do not remain focused only on your limits, on those of others and on the sins of the world. Instead, try to see the beauty that God has placed in each one of you and in this humanity that apparently looks like a disaster. Even in this humanity, the flowers of God may blossom, just as flowers always sprout even in an uncultivated field. You must collect them, love them and guard them.

Never judge anyone, children, but love everyone and bear witness with love to the love of God; and if someone refuses it, leave him to God, but you shall continue to sow seeds. Throw the good seed everywhere. God will take care of making it grow thirty, sixty, a hundred times.⁹⁷ Nothing should be important to you except sowing seeds always and everywhere; welcoming, loving, forgiving and serving all.

I ask you to let yourselves be led meekly towards what God wants. You will be able to follow and put into action God's plans if you are silent; if you let God pass and awaken in you the intelligence of life.

I am with you and I bless you, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

16 July 2020, Message of Our Lady, Our Lady of Mount Carmel

The Face of the Father must dissolve the darkness. The light of His Face must reject the darkness that the face of Satan emanates. You are asked to contemplate and embrace the life that God gives you. Wherever you are, make the Face of the Father shine; contemplate His life even in creation, which is entrusted to you, because His Face must also shine in creation, as it is the Face of life; it is the source of life. If you cannot see the light of His Face, you continue to live in the darkness, and I do not want this for anyone of you.

Contemplating the Life of the Father

“Dear Children,

Jesus came to reveal to you the Face of the Father, and now you have to reveal it, too. Your task is to live united with the Father and to reveal His Face to humanity; not a frightening face but the face of a loving Father who emanates the light that cures and heals all peoples.

Please, dear children, especially you priests, let the light of the Face of the Father shine on your face. I invite you today to be the true contemplatives of this time. Today you celebrate Me as the Virgin of Mount Carmel, where some holy hermits profoundly sought contemplation, inspired by the events on Mount Carmel where prophet Elijah fought against heresy.⁹⁸

True contemplation, children, is the contemplation of the divine life in you, of what God is doing every day within each one of you and within the whole of His people. It is not contemplation to isolate oneself in a place to stay in emptiness, which many call contemplation. That is not contemplation. If you cannot see the traces God leaves as He passes through your life, you are not contemplative. What do you contemplate? You cannot contemplate emptiness; you contemplate Life. If you cannot contemplate the life that is in you and in others, you cannot be a priestly people nor can you be priests. The priest is someone who seeks the life of God in the people and promotes it. Therefore, the priest should be truly contemplative; someone who is able to recognise life in himself and in others; who sees life gush out in the daily celebrations and makes it flow towards the people.

I call you to this service because now it is very important for the world to understand that the Father is present. You see how the humanity of the Earth is confused, tossed from one powerful to the other and enslaved. The demons are raging on this planet, keeping the people crushed under their claws. It is time to liberate all the power that God has placed in His people, in His Church of the whole Universe.

The Face of the Father must dissolve the darkness. The light of His Face must reject the darkness that emanates from the face of Satan. You are asked to contemplate and embrace the life that God gives you. Wherever you are, make the Face of the Father shine; contemplate His life even in creation, which is entrusted to you, because His Face must also shine in creation, as it is the Face of life; it is the source of life. If you cannot see the light of His Face, you continue to live in the darkness, and I do not want this for anyone of you.

I am sure that, together with Me, you will be the true contemplatives of this time, who collect and offer to God the tears, the prayers and the moans of many, even of those who, throughout history, sought God but could not accomplish what you can accomplish now, and of those who wept, as the prophet said, but did not generate; who suffered but did not give birth to anything but wind.⁹⁹ You are not to give birth to wind but to life because you are a fruitful people, because the Lord made you like this. There are many men and women of good will who are waiting to see the Face of the Father so that they may awaken to life.

I am with you and I accompany you in your homes and in your daily life. I bless you, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

1 August 2020, Message of Mary Most Holy, Vigil of the Solemnity of the Queen of Angels

Today, I ask you to pursue with Me a path of purification from all sins, not only a personal path, but also of the whole people of God. Remember that the new people, that is, the Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe, has the ability to atone for sins and to make up for all shortcomings of the remaining people of God. On Earth, there are many children of God of good will, who are soiled by the world as they are inserted in a difficult, thorny reality. Very often they fall superficially into sin, without thinking. Thus, the Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe fulfils the path towards forgiveness in the name of many children of God.

Walk towards Forgiveness

“Dearest Children,

I welcome you to the vigil of this day, particularly dear to Me, in which you celebrate Me as the Queen of Angels and remember the Great Pardon that my beloved child, St. Francis, obtained.¹⁰⁰ I am thankful for celebrating together with you. I am thankful to God and to you for all the progress you have made on your path.

Children, forgiveness is not a magic or one-sided act that comes from God, but the peak of a process in which the soul turns to God because it recognises its sins, becomes aware of being distant from the laws of ¹⁰⁰ The Franciscan Order celebrates the feast of Holy Mary of the Angels on 2 August. “Due to his particular love for the Most Blessed Virgin, St. Francis always took special care of the church dedicated to Holy Mary of the Angels, also known as “Portiuncula”. [...] According to tradition, the same chapel obtained the historic plenary indulgence [The Great Pardon of Assisi - Editor] which was subsequently confirmed by the supreme pontiffs and extended to numerous other churches” (Franciscan Missal, Publisher Messaggero Padova).

God and asks the Lord for help to overcome its shortcomings. Forgiveness is the fruit of the path of an individual and of a people, because there is sin even in a people; the people of God on Earth has witnessed many sins.

Today, I ask you to pursue with Me a path of purification from all sins, not only a personal path, but also of the whole people of God. Remember that the new people, that is, the Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe, has the ability to atone for sins and to make up for all shortcomings of the remaining people of God. On Earth, there are many children of God of good will, who are soiled by the world as they are inserted in a difficult, thorny reality. Very often they fall superficially into sin, without thinking. Thus, the Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe fulfils the path towards forgiveness in the name of many children of God.

I invite you to this path, each one of you and the whole people, to obtain forgiveness for many brothers and sisters, just as St. Francis obtained it. Now, it is a people that has to obtain forgiveness for the part of humanity that can still be snatched away by the evil one. Unfortunately, a large part of humanity, on Earth and in the Low Universe, does not want to pursue this path and does not seek to repair for sins; on the contrary, it is satisfied with the evil it commits, as you may see every day.

That is why God must intervene once more in order to separate definitively the humanity that belongs to Him from the one that belongs to Satan. Today, as you particularly remember the Angels that surround and serve Me faithfully, I tell you that the Father is sending the Angels to collect what is His and to separate forever the wheat from the weed.¹⁰¹ You will see the powerful action of God through His Angels. You will see how many powerful men, many systems and fortresses of the enemy will fall, because the Angels will travel the entire Universe. I ask you to be spiritually united with them, their prayers and their actions.

Prepare for the solemnity of the Father, which is extremely important for you.¹⁰² It is a great crossroads between the work you have done so far and the work you will do from now on. Every time you honour, bless and give thanks to the Father and make Him known to the world, you make a great step forward on your path. Thus, this solemnity, which you celebrate every year, enables all of you to move forward. The Father will speak to you and manifest His Word to you. You are asked to prepare yourselves, and those who are entrusted to you, through your life, your prayer and the offering of yourselves.

The times you are living in are very serious. The humanity of the Earth is not only afflicted by the pandemic that affects the body, but also by a spiritual pandemic, which is the sin against the Holy Spirit; this is the greatest sin that rages on Earth.

Children, what I have told you is important: walk towards true forgiveness; beg forgiveness for the children of God, to snatch them from death. Help Me in this work because without conversion it will be difficult to save them from death. Without a sincere desire for the life of God, humanity remains in death.

I bless you and I am close to you; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

¹⁰² Every year, on 7 August, the Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe, present on Earth, celebrates the Solemnity of God the Father to consecrate the whole Earth to Him.

7 August 2020, Message of God the Father, Solemnity of God the Father

I want this day, 7 August of every year, to be the beginning and the culmination of your liturgical year and all your celebrations.

Every year, on this day, I will renew My Alliance with you and yours with Me. You will consecrate the Earth and all sufferings to Me, especially those of My children who invoke Me. I will let My Spirit descend powerfully on you and the whole of My Church present on Earth [the Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe-Editor]. The power of this memorial will affect the Earth and the whole of My people present in the Universe.

This Solemnity Will Be the Beginning of Your Liturgical Year

“Dearest Children,

Thank you for being here today for the celebration of this solemnity that I strongly wanted to realize. I want this day, 7 August of every year, to be the beginning and the culmination of your liturgical year and all your celebrations.¹⁰³

Every year, on this day, I will renew My Alliance with you and yours with Me. You will consecrate the Earth and all its sufferings to Me, especially those of My children who invoke Me. I will let My Spirit descend powerfully on you and the whole of My Church present on Earth [the Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe-Editor].¹⁰⁴ The power

¹⁰⁴ We have been reminded many times that the Church Jesus founded is one in the whole Universe and that she is manifesting herself with her own dynamics in order to prepare the glorious coming of Christ. The Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe has of this memorial will affect the Earth and the whole of My people present in the Universe.

Immediately afterwards, on 15 August of every year, you will celebrate the Solemnity of the Assumption of Mary, Mother and Queen of the new creation. You will celebrate Her with this title because Mary has prepared the path towards the new creation for you. She is the only creature, after My Son, who crossed the Great Barrier of Heaven in body and soul, as all of you will do when you enter the new creation.

With the celebrations of the Father and the Mother you will begin your liturgical year and your mission for the months to come. This is very important because this Church¹⁰⁵ has to have her own liturgical year with her feasts and solemnities as well as her own doctrine. I know that I can count on you and I thank you for this.

Children, you see that the Earth is going through a difficult time; it experiences deep suffering and is immersed in darkness. However, I want to shake the Earth, make it tremble with My Love. I do not strike Earth with evil, as many think, because evil does not belong to Me; it is not part of Me, nor will it ever be. I touch creation with My Love. My Love is light, and light is life.¹⁰⁶ In the face of My Love, Evil rebels and manifests itself. It will use all means to counteract My Love and obscure My Light.

Therefore, do not be surprised: the more your path moves forward in the light, the more darkness will reveal and manifest its hatred towards you and towards the true children of God. Nevertheless, you do not have to be afraid because My Love will protect you. My Light will repel the darkness from each one of you; from the whole of My people and from the whole planet. This takes place if there is a people that immolates itself, prays and offers itself through My Son, in the power of the Holy Spirit, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

You have been asked to walk towards forgiveness¹⁰⁷, which is always immersion in My Light. Without My Light, darkness rules on Earth, as you may notice very well. Unfortunately, a large part of humanity runs away from My Love because it is afraid of it.¹⁰⁸ People fear being judged and having to appear for what they are. Thus, they turn to Lucifer or other idols that they have created themselves, in the hope to be saved without much effort; yet, this cannot be. Only My Love can save you; there is no other way of salvation for you. My Love became flesh in My Son Jesus; He works incessantly through the Holy Spirit, who is present in a special way in Mary's Heart.

Your battle will get harder, children. The forces of darkness cannot bear you; Lucifer hates you with violent hatred. They will try to bury you under the mud, but I will give you wings of freedom to fly above the mud of the world. You will look at it from above and overcome it.

You cannot expect gentleness and kindness from the world because it hates you; however, as you have heard, My Son has overcome the world.¹⁰⁹ His Blood covers and protects you. The seal of His Blood is on you, and it has the power to repel evil. Satan sees the seal, he sees the Blood and walks past.¹¹⁰ No one will be able to touch you; however, you will experience trials so that your faith is strengthened. All I ask of you is to remain faithful to My Love, to My Life, to My Son's Word and to everything you have received in recent years. Do not be afraid and do not draw back in the face of any threat. Nothing can strike you because I am in your midst, as the eternal rock, to protect you and defend you.

I bless you, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

14 August 2020, Message of Mary, Vigil of the Solemnity of the Assumption of Mary, Mother and Queen of the new creation

I bless all those who are present and those who are united with you in the same spirit. I am pleased to begin the new Liturgy for this year with you. A liturgical year is not a set of rites and memories but an ongoing and increasingly deepening path towards the fullness of life. It is a journey towards the new creation that each of you and the whole people of God accomplish on Earth and on other planets that are faithful to God.

I said, “a new Liturgy”, but in reality, it is an eternal Liturgy. In fact, your Liturgy on Earth is the participation in the eternal Liturgy that has been taking place in Heaven from the beginning of creation.

The Living Liturgy

“Dearest Children,

I bless all those who are present and those who are united with you in the same spirit. I am pleased to begin the new Liturgy for this year with you. A liturgical year is not a set of rites and memories but an ongoing and increasingly deepening path towards the fullness of life. It is a journey towards the new creation that each of you and the whole people of God accomplish on Earth and on other planets that are faithful to God.

I said, “a new Liturgy”, but in reality, it is an eternal Liturgy. In fact, your Liturgy on Earth is the participation in the eternal Liturgy that has been taking place in Heaven from the beginning of creation.¹¹¹

Before God’s throne, My Son Jesus, the High Priest, offers to the Father,

¹¹¹ See Caterina, Vlašić, “Rewriting History—Vol. II—The Universe and Its Inhabitants”, 2019, Luci dell’Esodo, Chap. 1-2; see also Eph 1,1-10

in the Holy Spirit, the sacrifices, the prayers and the love of the whole people spread in the Universe.¹¹² When you offer yourselves and the Earth to God, you become a ray of Heavenly light, a glow of the eternal Liturgy.

Particularly in the Eucharistic Celebration, the memorial of the death and resurrection of My Son, you are united in a special way with the events in Heaven. At that moment, the Father accepts the Sacrifice of the Son along with the sacrifice of His people that is celebrating the Easter memorial.¹¹³

Always remember that this does not happen on other planets. Only on Earth is the memorial of the death and the resurrection of My Son celebrated; it is the actualisation of what happened on the Calvary and then at the resurrection. During your celebrations, the eyes of the Universe are turned to you. Then, from the Liturgy of Heaven, in which the Father accepts the Sacrifice of the Son, light pours out inundating all of you and descending on the whole Universe. At the same time, divine light rises from the altar on which you celebrate, returning to Heaven and from where it is redistributed, through the Trinitarian vortex, to the whole Mystical Body of Christ.¹¹⁴ Thus, united with the eternal Liturgy, you participate in what takes place in Heaven, and you receive the light and the power of the Heavenly Liturgy.

This also happens when you pray together or individually. When you stand before the face of God, you are always in communion with Heaven and the divine power; you are immersed in the vortex of the Most Holy Trinity that reaches you, touches you and replenishes you, not only with the power of God, but also with that of His Mystical Body.

The Trinitarian vortex is like a conveyor belt: it brings you the power, the wisdom and the experience of the Mystical Body. It encloses the holiness of the people of God of the whole Universe, which has developed over the millennia. Imagine the power you can draw from, when you are united with God and all brothers and sisters, in the Holy Spirit, through My Heart.¹¹⁵ Thus, if you honour a saint in your celebrations, that saint makes his or her love and power descend on you. The saint, prays for you, is pleased about your prayers and raises them to God.

¹¹² See Heb 10,11-14

¹¹³ See 1 Cor 11,23-34

This shows you that the Liturgy is not a set of lifeless rites, as it is, unfortunately, perceived in many places of the Earth, but a living memorial. It is the active participation of each one of you and of the people of the Universe to the priesthood of Christ.

You have the privilege of reliving the death and resurrection of My Son in your celebrations; you are not only participants but also witnesses. In that moment, you testify to the whole Universe that the Lord truly died and rose on Earth in favour of the whole Universe and that He continues to immolate Himself in every Holy Mass. Moreover, when you celebrate worthily, all Heaven celebrates with you. The Father is pleased about the celebrations of this memorial and lets all graces descend on His people.

It is time for this Church to celebrate her Liturgy.¹¹⁶ I ask all of you, especially the priests and those among you who have a responsibility, to commit yourselves to making your Liturgy more and more actual and alive, using the Sacred Scriptures and the revelations that you have received. May the celebration of every solemnity, feast and memory be a living and actual memorial.

¹¹⁵ We have repeatedly spoken about the Trinitarian action, which works through the people of God who are ready to offer their life to God, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, in favour of all the children of God. We have particularly spoken about the Trinitarian Vortex in the book of Stefania Caterina, "Beyond the Great Barrier", in chapter 1. The whole people of God that offers itself to God the Father, through Jesus Christ in the Holy Spirit, is involved in the Trinitarian vortex. After God, the Trinitarian vortex is the greatest power working in the Universe.

I am with you in all your celebrations. When the priest elevates the Host and the Chalice, I am prostrated before the altar for all of you, just as I am in Heaven before the altar of God, when My Son celebrates His Liturgy with the Archangels, the Angels and the Saints. Prostrate yourselves with Me, not so much physically but spiritually: prostrate yourselves with Me before every altar for the salvation of all men.

Children, the Earth is on the edge of an abyss, as I have told you many times, and I continue to repeat it. The only salvation for the humanity of the Earth is the Celebration of the Eucharist united with the Heavenly Liturgy. There is no other hope for the children of the Earth. Therefore, you have the great responsibility to participate worthily, actively and with Christian love in every celebration.

You honour the Crucifix. You are not like those who spat on My Son and Me on the Calvary. Many Christians do the same even today when they participate unworthily in the Sacrifice of My Son. You, however, are not like those people: you are a new people that prostrates together with Me before the Saviour for the glory of the Father, in the Holy Spirit.

Your testimony, through the Liturgy, is Marian and Franciscan. Therefore, your liturgical year must be lived with Me and consecrated to Me by this people; it is a path towards the new creation. The years are running towards the new creation, and you will see how the time will speed up even more.¹¹⁷

Your path is Franciscan. St. Francis lived, on Earth, in a dimension that was similar to that of the faithful humanities. He is the saint who, more than anyone else, approached the spiritual dimension in which you will live in the new creation.¹¹⁸ That is why he continuously intercedes for you; he opens the path for you together with St. Clare, who, after Me, is your mother; always remember that. She generated many children of God in silence, surrendering to God, in prayer and the silent offering of herself.

The Father does not want clamorous, polemical or revolutionary individuals, but a simple, humble and silent people. Silent, but not because they are unable to give testimony, but because they do not discuss anything or attack anyone, but deeply live the Liturgy.

This is what He wants from you: whatever may happen in the world, be witnesses of the Heavenly Liturgy, through your Liturgy, lived with holiness, to be a holy people, testimony of Salvation. I will help you to be testimonies of the greatness of God and of My dignity as Mother, Queen and Coredemptrix.

I bless you and I accompany you, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

28 September 2020, Message of St. Michael the Archangel, Vigil of the solemnity of the seven great Archangels

You have been told that we angels are sent to separate the wheat from the weeds in these times, but not only that: we are sent to prepare the way for the Church of the Universe, which will come down to Earth where the last battle will take place. It will be the last and final clash between Good and Evil; between Jesus Christ and Lucifer; between the angels and the demons. It will be a great battle between light and darkness. Therefore, God sends us angels to prepare the way for the heavenly Jerusalem that will descend from Heaven. If we did not do that, you would not be able to move forward; without us, even the faithful brothers and sisters would not be able to act.

The Church of the Universe Will Come Down to Earth

“Dearest Brothers and Sister of the Earth, peace to you! I bring you the blessing of God and of the whole Church spread in the Universe. Today you celebrate us seven great Archangels as well as the angelic hosts. On this solemn day, the Church remembers the action of the angels, which is very powerful in these times.

You have been told that we angels are sent to separate the wheat from the weeds in these times, but not only that: we are sent to prepare the way for the Church of the Universe, which will come down to Earth where the last battle will take place. It will be the last and final clash between Good and Evil; between Jesus Christ and Lucifer; between the angels and the demons. It will be a great battle between light and darkness. Therefore, God sends us angels to prepare the way for the heavenly Jerusalem that will descend from Heaven.¹¹⁹ If we did not do that, you would not be able to move forward; without us, even the faithful brothers and sisters would not be able to act.

When the angels prepare the way, they separate light from darkness before the children of God. It is as if the Red Sea opened up once again so that the children of God may pass. Now the Earth is about to become the scenario you have always been told: the last scenario of the old creation; the last scenario of history as you know it today.

I tell you, brothers and sisters, that this clash between light and darkness is already taking place in the Universe, but it must reach its peak here on Earth; it will not be just any clash but a real battle of the spirits both in Heaven and on Earth.

The faithful humanities are preparing for the battle on Earth: they will help the children of God who are the weakest of the Universe; above all, they will support the angels in the clash with the “Confederation of the Light” and all satanic forces.¹²⁰ It will be a spiritual and physical combat.

Therefore, the faithful brothers and sisters are arranging everything necessary for their final and decisive mission. They have been preparing for this since eternity, since their pathway began.

To date, the faithful brothers and sisters have continually travelled the Middle Universe¹²¹ in order to strengthen ties with those humanities. They travel through the Low Universe over and over again to encourage those children of God who have decided to take part in the “Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe”, and who are suffering due to the strong satanic presence. Many inhabitants of rebellious planets have not converted at all despite the signs and the power of the faithful brothers and sisters.

¹²¹ See “Rewriting History–Vol. II –The Universe and Its Inhabitants”, pp. 27-28.

As you can see, the evangelisation of the Universe is not finished yet. The whole Universe has been visited, but the evangelisation is still in progress. Above all, the Earth is missing, as it has not yet been evangelised. This will be your task with the help of the Church of the whole Universe. For now, your action happens in spirit because your weakness does not allow you to do more, but you will receive help from above.

I ask you to stay ready for the coming events, which will be great and decisive. The coming year, 2021, will be a crucial year in which many things will end and others will begin. We angels prepare the coming of the new year on Earth, in which the Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe will have to manifest itself more and more and begin to descend from Heaven.

We angels do not know the thoughts of God or His projects, which will be communicated to us when the time comes; we are not curious and we do not ask for anything more, but we prepare ourselves. You have to do the same. You are the soldiers of Christ, and you must be ready at all times for what He will ask you. This is true vigilance, which allows you not to fall into temptation or passiveness. I invite you, therefore, to stay ready in order not to delay God's plans. In fact, the Church that will descend from Heaven, the faithful brothers and sisters and we angels need to find a ready people on Earth, because we cannot turn to anyone but the people of God.

Children – I call you like this because those who do the will of God are also our children; even we angels have feelings of divine paternity towards you; thus, I will call you children, but also brothers and sisters and friends – you have been told that you must rescue this humanity and rebuild it. In this way, you can also evangelise it. The humanity of the Earth is in utter despair, mostly separated from the Holy Spirit, incapable of goodness and mercy. Nevertheless, there are many good people, but they are blocked by the action of evil. Now is the time for you to make God's life flow towards that part of humanity.

To do this, you will have to rise spiritually more and more but also be willing to go down to the dark depths of this humanity. It is necessary for this Church to go down and touch the deepest roots of the humanity of the Earth and the hell many souls are suffering. I do not ask you to do great works but to be willing to cure the lepers and to lift up many disabled in spirit. Therefore, be prepared for the events and ready to search until you find the last lost sheep.

We Archangels accompany you; we precede you to prepare the way before you. It is a way that broadens before the people of God in these times, because the newness of God must be manifested and become more and more visible. We ask everyone of you and the whole people to be ready, available, docile and able to rise high and to get down to the least of your brothers. I know that I am asking a lot of you, but I know that I can rely on your response. For our part, I assure you our protection and support.

I advise you to remain strongly united with your guardian angel, who is powerful and accompanies and protects you. Now is the time for you to enter into deep communion with your guardian angel: speak to him, ask him for help, remain close to him in everything and he will help you.

I bless you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

4 October 2020, Message of St. Francis of Assisi, Solemnity of St. Francis of Assisi

Dearest brothers and sisters in Christ, peace be with you! I want to accompany you towards the new creation like a father and a brother. You have been told that your path is Marian and Franciscan, and these two aspects are inseparable.

My love for the Mother of God guided me on my whole path. I was totally immersed in the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

No spiritual path can arise from the will of man, no matter how virtuous; it is always God's initiative to call man, and then man responds. Nevertheless, due to man's weakness, his response is often uncertain and fearful, and this is when the Heavenly Mother begins to act. Her pure and immaculate Love envelops those who have been chosen by God and helps them respond. Her hand supports them and shows them the right steps to take; She intercedes for them, comforts, encourages and blesses them. Every true vocation is born from God's call and from the Mother's womb; the calling is embodied in those who respond, and thus becomes a work of God, visible to the eyes of man.

Be Worthy of Your Task

“Dearest brothers and sisters in Christ, peace be with you! I want to accompany you towards the new creation like a father and a brother. You have been told that your path is Marian and Franciscan, and these two aspects are inseparable.”¹²²

My love for the Mother of God guided me on my whole path. I was totally immersed in the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

¹²² See Message of Mary Most Holy of 14 August 2020, “The Living Liturgy”, published on this website, <https://towardsthenewcreation.com/>

No spiritual path can arise from the will of man, no matter how virtuous; it is always God's initiative to call man, and then man responds. Nevertheless, due to man's weakness, his response is often uncertain and fearful, and this is when the Heavenly Mother begins to act. Her pure and immaculate Love envelops those who have been chosen by God and helps them respond. Her hand supports them and shows them the right steps to take; She intercedes for them, comforts, encourages and blesses them. Every true vocation is born from God's call and from the Mother's womb; the calling is embodied in those who respond, and thus becomes a work of God, visible to the eyes of man.

This is how Franciscanism came forth: from God's call, from Most Holy Mary's Heart and from my response. I was the smallest among men; I had no merits, but God called me and I allowed Him to change my thoughts and my life. That was my conversion.

After my conversion, I spent a long time in solitude and prayer to understand what the will of God was. None of the already existing paths seemed right to me: I did not intend to become a priest or a friar, even less I wanted to found a new religious Order. I only wanted to belong to Christ through the Mother of God, living a simple life as a child of God, according to the Gospel, in harmony with creation. I was not a bizarre dreamer, as many thought; on the contrary, I wanted to be a concrete man, capable of fulfilling my vocation. I sensed that I had to open up a new path, simple but also demanding.

The Lord helped me by showing me His will. During the time of solitude, I was visited by the Archangels, especially by St. Michael, who gave me great revelations about life in the Universe and about the mission of the Church. Thus, I learned that I also had brothers and sisters on other planets. I believed in their existence, I welcomed them in my heart and I loved them.

After receiving the explanations of the Archangels, I was visited both physically and spiritually by the brothers and sisters of the Universe faithful to God. They explained many things to me about their life, their service to God, and their relationship with the creatures that are different from man. The communion with them lasted all my earthly life, and it was for me a source of incredible joy as well as spiritual progress. I have never spoken about all this to anyone even my own friars. I waited until the time was ripe to reveal all this.

To help me in my path, God put an extraordinary woman at my side: St. Clare, with whom I shared everything. She was also visited and instructed like me, because together we had to accomplish the work of proclaiming to the Church, on the basis of the revelations given to us, the great plan God had predetermined from eternity: summing up the whole Universe in Christ; a plan that you know very well.

In order to realise all this, the Lord wanted to create, through the two of us, a great spiritual Family, humble but powerful in spirit, composed of brothers and sisters who would have lived together, recreating the lost harmony between man and woman and being a new yeast within Christianity. This would have helped the Church of the Earth to open up to the reality of the Universe and to accept the presence of other brothers and sisters. This was the purpose of the revelations we had received.

The Franciscan Family was the instrument chosen by God for that time at the service of the Church. Unfortunately, neither the humanity of that time nor the Church was ready to welcome Franciscanism as it was in the divine thought. Clare and I understood it from the beginning. With great sadness, we accepted to be separated from each other. Thus, despite the holiness of many Franciscan men and women over the centuries, Franciscanism could not express its enormous potential and had to adapt to the reality of the Earth. I do not want to criticise, for much has been done by Franciscanism, but much has also remained concealed.

The Lord understood my and Clare's pain; a great pain that we offered to God. In His goodness, He promised us that our offering would prepare the way for future generations that, one day, would understand and welcome the plan of God to recapitulate the whole creation in Christ.

Today, the time has come in which an immense people has been gathered by God, from all parts of the Universe, to form the only Church in Jesus Christ, founded on Earth but alive and working all over the Universe. You, too, are part of it and want to manifest the face of this Church on Earth and announce the plan of God. I prayed and suffered together with Clare for you, too, and therefore we are like a father and a mother for you.

The history of salvation has seen a continuous passing of testimonies from one generation to another, from one people to another, but the plan of God the Father has always remained the same: to draw to Himself all men and women as well as all creatures through Jesus Christ, in the Holy Spirit, in order to lead the whole creation back to the harmony of its Creator.

Dear brothers and sisters, be aware that you are living in an extraordinary time, in which God accomplishes His plan of love and salvation. Lucifer, homicide and usurper, has corrupted a large part of humanity and profaned creation. Now he must be driven out and thrown into the darkness that he has chosen, “were there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth” (Mt 8,12), along with all those who have adored and served him.

You, and all those who have undertaken this path, belong to the “Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe”, which is the last and final instrument chosen by God to accomplish His work. All that has remained unfinished over the centuries will be realised by God through His Church of the whole Universe.

Remember that you represent this Church on Earth and that you have to be worthy of your task. Therefore, be humble and simple but also determined. Do not allow anyone to stop your action, but do not treat anyone with harshness. Show everyone the merciful face of the Saviour and the tender love of the Heavenly Mother. Lift up from the dust the suffering humanity that seeks God but does not know how to find Him. With your prayer and your self-offering you help the sinners to repent, the sick to heal, the crippled to walk. There are many sick and crippled even in spirit, poor children of God of whom no one takes care!¹²³

May God's love in all of you finally overcome the hatred of Hell; may God's life repel death and the balm of prayer heal the wounds of humanity. Many will reject you, but many will listen to you. God waits for His Church to flourish in love and works. No one will be able to stop the plan of God: anything that will try to oppose this Church will shatter like a shard against her walls.

I recommend that you take great care of your inner and outer discipline. All your being, spirit, soul and body, ought to give testimony to the work of God in you and through you. Take care of your body as much as you take care of your soul and your spirit.

During my earthly life I have neglected and chastised my body, dragging it like a donkey. Then I understood my mistake: the body of the saints, who live for the Lord, is not a donkey but the holy temple of God. Make sure that your temple shines. Be dignified and moderate in speaking and dressing. Nourish your body and take care of it without exaggerating, but with the awareness that it is an indispensable instrument for your mission on Earth.

God wants you to be healthy and happy. He does not want the diseases that are caused by the corruption of man, which is fed by the evil one. Sometimes the Father allows a disease to happen as a test to strengthen the faith of His children, to correct their conduct or to connect them with the mystery of the salvific suffering of His Son. Whatever the cause of the disease may be, if you offer it to God through Mary Most Holy, you will be able to face it with the power of faith. Blessed are you if you are able to suffer with Christ, as you will be instruments of salvation.

¹²³ See Isa 61,1-4; Lk 4,18-21

Be kind and generous, friends of God and humanity. Then, the Lord will send those who seek true life to you, and the Church will grow in holiness and justice.

Keep away from ambition and never seek to be seen. Carry out every service that has been entrusted to you with love and earnestness, but know that it is not your deeds that make you great but what you are in the eyes of God, who looks at your humbleness. Originality and holiness are more important than any service because the works are nothing other than the fruit of your tree whose roots are embedded in the holiness of God.

I am with you together with St. Clare. Our prayers will always accompany you. I bless you, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

13 October 2020, Message of God the Father

The offering of your life to Me becomes an enormous gift that transforms everything in you and around you. When a person and a people consecrate themselves to Me, through My Son, in the Holy Spirit, I place a shield around each one of them and around the whole people, which will protect them from all attacks by evil. From this, an ever new life comes forth, which will protect and nurture you. Thus, you become the reflection of the presence of God wherever you go and whatever you say. My face will shine on you and people will know the truth.

Living in Truth and Justice

Today, two of our young sisters of the Foundation “Fortress of the Immaculate” have consecrated themselves to the service of God and the “Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe”. During the celebration, God the Father addressed His word to us.

“Dearest Children,

This is an important day for your people because two young lives will consecrate themselves to the service of God and the Church of the whole Universe. This is also a great gift to the whole of humanity.

The consecration of each one of you is a gift to humanity, a drop in the immense sea of God’s love on this Earth that urgently needs it. Humanity is so thirsty that it needs an ocean to quench its thirst. Of this ocean, you are little, but very precious, drops.

What does it mean to consecrate oneself to Me? It means to live in the truth. The truth exists only in Me, in My Son and in the Holy Spirit. Jesus came to Earth to bring you the truth. He presented Himself as the only Way, Truth and Life.¹²⁴ Outside of My Son, there is no other pathway that leads humanity to salvation, nor another truth or another life. There is no life outside of Me, nor will you be able to find it except in Me, through My Son, in the Holy Spirit.

The offering of your life to Me becomes an enormous gift that transforms everything in you and around you. When a person and a people consecrate themselves to Me, through My Son, in the Holy Spirit, I place a shield around each one of them and around the whole people, which will protect them from all attacks by evil. From this, an ever new life comes forth, which will protect and nurture you. Thus, you become the reflection of the presence of God wherever you go and whatever you say. My face will shine on you and people will know the truth.

Today I ask you to live in the truth that My Son has given to you, that you have welcomed and that lives within each one of you. May this people never compromise with the truth, but proceed quickly on the main road without looking back or losing time stopping along the road with those who do not want to participate in the life of God. May your gaze be fixed on the goal, as you have heard in the reading.¹²⁵

I will accompany you and My Son will bring you to Me because this is His task. The Holy Spirit will make you recognise more and more Jesus' life in you. Thus, in the power of the Holy Spirit, Jesus will lead each of you and the whole people to Me, and you will live in the truth.

You will also live in justice, which comes from faith. This is the true justice, which the world completely lacks because it does not live in the truth. Whoever does not live in the truth cannot live in justice either. Justice must triumph on Earth, but not justice as vengeance, as man understands it, but justice that is love, peace and goodness, and

¹²⁴ See John 14,1-14

¹²⁵ See Phil 32,1-16

makes you live according to My Laws, which are laws of righteousness, goodness and tenderness.¹²⁶

My dear children, I entrust to you, who are present, and to all those who are united with you, the great task of walking incessantly towards truth and justice. Then, My Church will shine on Earth and in the whole Universe, and it will be one Holy Church, pure and immaculate as her Mother.

Children, I ask you to be genuine and sincere people in your relationship with Me, with yourselves and the others. Look at things as they are in God, and you will not be wrong. I will welcome you, and I will always help you, even when you feel fragile or inadequate and when you recognise all your limits. If you have difficulties on your path, I will support you and take you to the goal: I will make you live according to My Laws and you will be the people of God here on Earth.¹²⁷

31 October 2020, Message of St. Michael the Archangel, Vigil of the Solemnity of All Saints

The “Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe” will continue her pathway in the whole Universe. She will grow and manifest herself more and more to the eyes of the entire humanity. On Earth in particular, she will reveal herself to those who are of good will. Many Catholics feel crushed by the hierarchical system. Moreover, they do not understand what direction this papacy is giving to the Catholic Church. The same is taking place in the other Christian confessions, which are fragmented and often opposed to each other. In addition, many systems oppress your humanity: political, economic, religious systems, which degrade the little and exalt the powerful. They create confusion and bewilderment, preparing the way for the devil and his followers. Lucifer’s hatred and perversion reign on Earth.

People who feel bewildered in the face of so much confusion will turn their eyes to this Church to find support, teaching and shelter in the dark days awaiting the Earth.

The Lord Will Come with All His Saints

“Dearest Brothers and Sisters of the ‘Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe’, peace to you!

The Lord, Almighty God, sends me to you now that you have to go through this very delicate and decisive time.

The excommunication that has struck Father Tomislav has inevitably struck all of you.¹²⁸ The Lord Jesus, the only Head of the Church, has considered the judgment of the Catholic Church against you as superficial, hasty and merciless; essentially, an UNFAIR JUDGEMENT. As such, it has no value in the eyes of God. In fact, what God has considered as unfair cannot stay before Him, who is the absolute Righteous. Human injustice cannot stand up to Justice.

The Catholic Church, through the hierarchies that represent her, has considered these revelations as contrary to the Christian doctrine and thus a cause for scandal for the faithful. In doing so, she separated from the path of this people and from the Church of the Universe. The consequences of this choice will be serious and inevitable.

The “Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe” will continue her pathway in the whole Universe. She will grow and manifest herself more and more to the eyes of the entire humanity. On Earth in particular, she will reveal herself to those who are of good will. Many Catholics feel crushed by the hierarchical system. Moreover, they do not understand what direction this papacy is giving to the Catholic Church. The same is taking place in the other Christian confessions, which are fragmented and often opposed to each other. In addition, many systems oppress your humanity: political, economic, religious systems, which degrade the little and exalt the powerful. They create confusion and bewilderment, preparing the way for the devil and his followers. Lucifer’s hatred and perversion reign on Earth.

People who feel bewildered in the face of so much confusion will turn their eyes to this Church to find support, teaching and shelter in the dark days awaiting the Earth. Lucifer is launching his last attack against God and against the children of God under the illusion of winning the battle and conquering the Universe. He has gathered on Earth all the armies scattered over the planets that are rebellious against God, because it is to Earth that the Lord will gloriously return, and there will be the final and concluding clash between light and darkness.

God is also preparing His armies: the Church present in the whole Universe will come down from Heaven with power and join the Church of the Earth to face the last battle together. The holiness of God will manifest itself through the true Church. For now, she will descend in the Holy Spirit, invisible to human eyes but extremely powerful. That will be the cosmic Pentecost, the prelude to the glorious coming of Christ. Thus, the Kingdom of God will be solidly established among you, and you will all be strengthened and elevated to a life of holiness.

Then, on the glorious day of Christ's return to the Earth, the Church of the whole Universe will manifest herself openly and become visible to everyone. Gloriously and without blemish, she will face the people of darkness. Everything will manifest itself in its true light. No one will be able to hide. Human systems and structures, ideologies and false idols will be of no use. The Lord will come with His Saints of all times and all planets, accompanied by the angelic hosts, to liberate His people and cast Lucifer and his followers into eternal darkness. His return will make the Universe tremble.

Until then, the Church of the whole Universe will only be partly visible: for justice, the pure hearted and the poor in spirit will see her. God will call them and direct them towards the true Church. The other organisations, which call themselves "Church" but are not considered as such by God, will remain empty.

No arrogant hypocrites will cross the threshold of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe. The action of God, united with that of His Church, will increasingly weaken Lucifer's armies: the corrupt powerful, the arrogant, the idolaters, the violent and all those who made their selfishness their god, will be set aside.

The Lord called me to be the Precursor of His glorious coming. It is my responsibility to gather all His people from the whole Universe and protect them from evil. I will do it with the power that God has given to me. I am His servant who only wants to accomplish his duty before God and humanity. No man could bear the weight of this responsibility, as the battle between good and evil will be of cosmic proportions. My angelic hosts are ready and will be at the side of the people of God.

Tomorrow you celebrate the solemnity of All Saints. I invite you to enter into a living relationship with them in these times. Thus, their presence beside you, especially in the Eucharistic Celebrations, will be increasingly alive and palpable. I do not only refer to the Saints in Paradise, but also to all those who live for Christ and in Christ on all inhabited planets. Together you form one Body because one is the Spirit that unites you.

The Lord expects from His Church of the whole Universe an increased commitment to the battle against the devil and his hosts. I invite you to intensify your work of evangelising the Earth, using the spiritual means that have been shown to you in recent years:

- Baptism in the Holy Spirit and fire.
- Offering of the suffering and prayer for them and for the last, the forgotten, the dying and the deceased. Offer to God the Father, through Jesus Christ, in the Holy Spirit, all the sufferings of the children of God and the victims of evil, especially of the pandemic which is afflicting the Earth. I ask the priests of this Church to absolve in spirit all those who are about to die and those who want to repent; the Holy Spirit will ensure that the fruit of your actions reaches the recipients. God will reward you.
- Forgiveness and prayer for all, friends and enemies, according to the teachings of our Master and Lord Jesus Christ.
- Incessant prayers for the rulers of the Earth who are of good will and who sincerely desire the good of the peoples.
- Communion with the extraordinary instruments and the whole Church of the Universe. There where you cannot reach, others will reach thanks to the universal communion.
- The wish to love and serve the Most Holy Trinity and the firm refusal to belong to evil.

The points I have indicated to you will not only serve to evangelise the Earth but also be real exorcism. In fact, the most powerful exorcism is produced by the holiness and the actions of the people of God, who expel evil from the people and from the world. Even in this, you will be helped by the communion with the Church of the Universe.

Do all this through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Mother of the Church, Queen and Co-Redemptrix of the humanity of the Earth. Remain close to Her and ask Her to present all your good deeds to God, and nothing will be able to hurt you.

The time has come for the Church of the Earth, finally free from human and hierarchical constraints, to begin her mission in fullness. God will instruct you directly and through His instruments. You will be guided slowly and gradually for every task that God will entrust to you.

Even if you have been judged harshly, never judge anyone. No unkind words, no judgments, no resentments. Do everything out of love for God and His people, with humbleness and patience. Respond to evil with goodness and meekness. Be ready to welcome all those who come to you without judging or condemning them, as many repenting sinners will seek mercy. This Church does not excommunicate anyone except evil, which must not find a place among you.

Love each other with the love of Christ. Love those who need love. Always remember the Blood that the Lord has given for you and for all.

I am close to you, as I have always been, and I protect you. Do not be afraid of the enemy. All you need will be given to you at the right time and in the right way. Never doubt Providence, which is always Love.

I bless you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

21 November 2020, Message of Jesus, Vigil of the Solemnity of Christ the King

My and your Father wants you to consecrate the whole year of 2021 to Me, the Son of God and King of the Universe, who I am. My Church of the whole Universe has to consecrate to Me every day of the coming year and every member has to consecrate every moment of his/her life. In this way, I will reign in My Church, and I will manifest the Kingdom of God through you.

Be Ready for the Battle

“Dearest Children,

The Year 2020 is about to end. It has been a very difficult year for the Earth, a painful but necessary event. Once again, the Father has put your humanity to the test by allowing the pandemic to strike you: an epochal event for your planet.¹²⁹

Know, once and for all, that evil does not come from God but from Lucifer’s action in which a large part of humanity, indifferent and rebellious against God, is involved, knowingly or not, by serving the devil out of selfishness or for personal gain. Therefore, this pandemic carries the signature of Lucifer, of his followers on Earth and other rebellious planets of the low Universe, who have actively taken part in the spreading of the coronavirus that afflicts and conditions your life.

My and your Father has allowed all this to happen in order to give you the opportunity to reconsider the way you live and the values on which you have founded your existence, and to show you once again the only way of salvation, which passes through Me.

I am your Saviour, who has given His life for each one of you. No one else but Me will be able to save you from death, disease and sin. I am your God and your Lord who governs you with love because I wish nothing but your good and your happiness. I do not oppress you, but I liberate you; I do not force you but I invite you to the banquet of life.

Unfortunately, the majority of your humanity prefers to die of hunger rather than participate in My banquet.¹³⁰ They would rather remain enslaved by the Evil One rather than be liberated by Me. Money, power and pleasure are at the top of the scale of values, and they are by no means ready to change their way of thinking. Lucifer knows that very well, and from that He draws his strength: he holds you in his grip, promising you a few crumbs while depriving you of true nourishment. Poor men who barter true happiness for some moments of pleasure; who give up the Kingdom of God for the miserable kingdoms of the Earth; who refuse the Bread of life and feed on poison instead. What can I do for you if you turn your back on Me?

My Children, My Heart is continuously offended by a large part of the humanity of the Earth, as is the Immaculate Heart of My Mother. The Most Holy Trinity is offended by the sins of the Earth, which have reached an intolerable limit. The children of God are suffering; they are mocked, persecuted and killed by the children of darkness. Many innocent are deprived of life and freedom, oppressed by the spirit of the world, which knows nothing but abuse and violence. It is time for the One and Triune God to look down from Heaven and visit the Earth to restore the only true order of things, the divine order, which arises from the pure Laws of the Spirit.

My and your Father wants you to consecrate the whole year of 2021 to Me, the Son of God and King of the Universe, who I am. My Church of the whole Universe has to consecrate to Me every day of the coming year and every member has to consecrate every moment of his/her life. In this way, I will reign in My Church, and I will manifest the Kingdom of God through you.

The Kingdom of God is not a fairytale but a reality that must manifest itself in all its power. It is the seed that God has thrown into the hearts of His people so that it may grow and spread. It does not manifest itself with human strength as the kingdoms of the world; it is not founded on ephemeral riches but on the power of God and His eternal Laws, which govern the Universe; not on money, power and pleasure but on faith, hope and love.

I will act profoundly in the power of the Holy Spirit, in the Church of the whole Universe. I will be present in a special way in this Church of the Earth in the coming year. I will manifest My Power as King and Lord in her. She will oppose the power of Lucifer and his followers. It will be a very hard and violent battle, but nothing will stop the path of My Church. Headed by St. Michael the Archangel, she will advance victoriously with the power of faith and miracles. The people of good will, the innocent, the forgotten and all those who sincerely seek the truth, will see My Church rise like a bright star in the darkness that will envelop the Earth.

My Church, in the whole Universe, will be increasingly involved in the preparation of My glorious return. She will support the Church of the Earth in the battle against Lucifer and the kingdom of darkness. None of you will be abandoned. You will be strengthened by the Holy Spirit and Me, for the glory of the Father and for the good of the children who are awaiting Salvation. You will be enveloped in the love and tenderness of My Mother so that Her Heart may triumph in you and through you. You will not lack anything.

I ask you to be faithful witnesses of the divine life that you have received; may God's life triumph in you, in your thoughts, in your words and deeds. May each child of God see on your faces the light of life, and thus turn his steps towards salvation. In this way, through you, whoever is of good will will know My true and only Church and be able to join her. She is like one great heart that beats in the whole Universe and loves God without pretence and without conditions.¹³¹

I tell you that there will be sad times for the humanity of the Earth who refuses to convert and change life. My royalty will destabilise the global system, which Lucifer and his followers have elaborated over the centuries to dominate this world. The false certainties of many men, the false doctrines and the false science will collapse. Unjust riches, accumulated by a few to the detriment of many, will be consumed. The tyrants and the oppressors, the evil and the corrupt will cover their faces in shame when the peoples laugh at their nakedness, for everything will be naked before My eyes.¹³²

When the people who do not love God, the superficial and the indifferent, whoever seeks only his personal advantage without caring about anyone, will swallow the lies of the powerful without questioning them, remaining silent before injustice, they will follow the fate of the world. They will weep and complain, but they will not change because they do not want to change; they do not want to come to Me to be saved.¹³³

I tell you, who are My Church: be ready for the battle and stay awake at all times. I want to find you awake every time I need you. Do not allow anyone to put off the light of My Life in you; ask for the light that enables you to discern between all things, and you will receive it. The time of your liberation is drawing near.¹³⁴ Walk with Me towards freedom; participate in the victory of your King.¹³⁵

7 December 2020, Message of Mary Most Holy, Vigil of the solemnity of the Immaculate Conception

The year 2021 will indeed be a particular year for the Earth and for the “Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe”, present on this planet. It will be a turning point for the whole Universe. It means the beginning of a new time, a MESSIANIC TIME. Thus, a new era of human history will begin; one that has never been seen, and in which My Son will manifest His royal and priestly power in the Church of the whole Universe.

The Messianic Time

“Dearest Children,

I am pleased to speak to you on the vigil of the solemnity that honours My Immaculate Conception. On this vigil, the Lord sends Me to announce to you a year of grace and mercy but also of hard combat against the kingdom of darkness.

The year 2021 will indeed be a particular year for the Earth and for the “Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe”, present on this planet. It will be a turning point for the whole Universe. It means the beginning of a new time, a MESSIANIC TIME. Thus, a new era of human history will begin; one that has never been seen, and in which My Son will manifest His royal and priestly power in the Church of the whole Universe.

His manifestation will be silent but very concrete. It will pass through the action of His people and of the extraordinary instruments of these times. Jesus will be present more than ever in spirit in His Church; He will accompany her testimony in the whole Universe with the signs of His power, much more than took place at the time of the Apostles¹³⁶ because today the Church is present in the whole Universe and her strength has grown.

Thus, the GLORIFICATION OF JESUS, willed by the Father, will begin and culminate in the glorious coming of Jesus at the end of times. The Holy Spirit will act powerfully in the Church of the whole Universe. He will take every faithful and the whole of His people to an ever higher and ever more equal spiritual level in the whole Universe. In this way, the differences between the various humanities will be overcome. In fact, all will have to reach the same knowledge of God and of His Laws through Jesus Christ, in the Holy Spirit.

In this way, the glorification of Jesus will go hand in hand with the RECAPITULATION in Him of the whole creation. In fact, My Son will attract to Himself those who will be judged worthy of participating in His glory; then, the glory of His children will pour upon the whole creation, which is waiting for the manifestation of the children of God, as it is written.¹³⁷

All this will not happen from one day to another but will be a gradual process, which will allow the people of God to assimilate the powerful graces of these times. God's interventions are not magic, but always require the free and conscious participation of the people in the events planned by God. Nevertheless, the Lord rules time, and He is always free to accelerate the events according to the response and the participation of His Church. Therefore, I ask you to intensify your commitment to your spiritual path so that the Lord may speed up the times and shorten the suffering of a large part of humanity.¹³⁸

The presence of Jesus, who is alive and working in His Church of the whole Universe, will force Lucifer and his hosts to come out in the open. Thus, the battle between the people of the Lamb and the people of the Dragon will begin, and it will end with the coming of Jesus in His glory. Only then will Lucifer and all his kingdom be expelled to eternal darkness, the dimension they will deserve, whereas creation will be new, harmonious and suitable for the children of God.

¹³⁷ See Romans 8,19-22

¹³⁸ See 2Pt 3,11-15

Do not be afraid of facing this battle because it will be My Son to fight it along with His Church of the whole Universe. Each of you will be assigned the task that best suits your originality. If you remain faithful to your call, nothing will be able to harm you.

I tell you all: now is the time to make a final choice. Decide on which side of the battlefield you want to be and to which army you want to belong, whether to God or to Lucifer. No one will be able to close the eyes to the events because the struggle will affect the entire humanity of the Universe. Everyone, believers and non-believers, will be involved in the cosmic events that appear on the horizon. You will not be able to remain indifferent.

As Mother, I supplicate you to choose God and to place yourselves under the full authority of My Son Jesus before it is too late. I want to gather you under My mantle to protect and comfort you, but I will not be able to do anything for you if you refuse Me. Now is the time to decide; it is still the time of Mercy. Do not abuse My Lord's patience and convert. Abandon the empty life of the world, which cannot give you happiness, even less salvation.

The Messianic time of which I speak, is also a time of EVANGELISATION. It will also end on Earth with the glorious coming of My Son. The Earth is pagan, distant from God, infested with corruption and sin, enslaved by the devil that is pushing it towards the abyss. Therefore, the evangelisation of the Earth is of primary importance for the entire Universe, which is waiting for the conversion of the Earth. The powerful action of Jesus in His Church will give your humanity a strong impulse towards conversion. Jesus' presence among His people will be palpable and also the power of His Church of the whole Universe, which will expand day by day.

Over the centuries, many mystics have spoken about the INTERMEDIATE COMING OF JESUS even though they did not clearly know its meaning. The presence of Jesus in spirit among His people, of which I speak, is the intermediary coming of Jesus. It will precede His glorious coming in which Jesus will present Himself in flesh and blood as Son of God and Son of Man. He will come to judge humanity and forever divide light from darkness, the children of God from the children of Satan. He will finally establish the Kingdom of God and offer it to the Father in the Holy Spirit. He will introduce the children of God into the new creation that the Father will have prepared for them.

The things I am speaking of are great and terrible for those who do not believe, but full of hope and love for those who are awaiting them with faith. The ancient promises of the prophets of Israel will be entirely fulfilled. The seed of holiness and justice, which has been sown by the saints of all times and all planets, often through hard work and pain, will give eternal fruit. The tree of life will flourish forever in the garden of God, which is the new creation. God will be all in all. Children, hurry to take part now in this great plan of God.

In the evangelisation of the Universe and particularly the Earth, the SIGN that I have given you and which many of you are already wearing, will be of great importance.¹³⁹ It expresses the triumph of My Immaculate Heart in the Church of the whole Universe. The triumph of My Heart is the prelude of the triumph of My Son because I am the Queen of the Universe. It is also an obligatory passage from the old to the new creation for the people of God. My Heart is in the centre of the Cross because I am the Co-Redemptrix of humanity. The stars that surround My Heart are My children in the whole Universe because I am the Mother of humanity.

The sign I have given to you encloses My power as Queen, Co-Redemptrix and Mother of humanity. My task, in these times, is to guard the Church of the whole Universe and prepare her for the glorious coming of My Son at the end of times, but also for His intermediary coming in these times. My presence and My work among you will accompany the glorification of My Son and that of His people in this Messianic time.

This sign is already widespread in the whole Universe and must be spread on Earth through the Church of Jesus Christ that is present on this planet. It will be the sign of belonging to the people of the Universe. It will be powerful and bear fruit of conversion and healing, and thus contribute to the evangelisation of the Earth. The power of this sign will also be the manifestation of the power of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe. Along with the sign, the two prayers of consecration, given to you by St. Michael the Archangel in 2007¹⁴⁰, will be important. They obtain all their greatness in these times, because they sum up the prayers of the whole people of the Universe to My Son and Me.

I promise to those who will carry the sign with faith and say the prayers of consecration, which I told you, the conversion and the healing of the spirit, the soul and the body. I will be close to them and protect them with My power as Queen, Mother and Co-Redemptrix. I will reward with many graces all those who spread the sign and teach the prayers of consecration to others. In this way, you will help Me in My work and I thank you for this.

Be strong, My children, and always remain humble; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

¹⁴⁰ They are the prayers of consecration to the Mother and Queen of the Universe and to Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. You will find them under the category “Consecrations and Prayers” on our website, <https://towardsthenewcreation.com/>

24 December 2020, Message of Jesus, Vigil of the Nativity of Our Lord

You are living in very serious times; times of struggle between light and darkness, between the spirits of Good and Evil, which are facing each other in an unprecedented challenge. ...

What do I want from you? A simple life worthy of your calling; a holy life, offered to the One who is three times Holy. The Church will not be able to be My Spouse unless all the souls, of which she is composed, are My spouses.

The Souls, Spouses of Christ

“Dearest Children,

Today, with these words, I would like to introduce you into the new year, 2021. It will be an intensive year for all of you and for the entire humanity of the Universe. As I have already explained, I will come with power among My people to guide and protect them.¹⁴¹

You are living in very serious times; times of struggle between light and darkness, between the spirits of Good and Evil, which are facing each other in an unprecedented challenge.

This is taking place now in the whole Universe and can only be compared with what happened before My Incarnation on Earth. At that time, the hatred of Lucifer and his people opposed My imminent coming. Now, his hatred is even stronger than in those days because it is not only directed against God but also against His Church of the Universe.

The people of God has grown in number and power thanks to the universal communion, which unites all the members of the Church that are present on every planet. The people of Lucifer have also grown in the whole Low Universe. The situation on Earth is particularly serious, where the coldness of many Christians has opened the doors to an increasingly invasive action of the devil and his followers. Lucifer has filled with occult and esoteric powers the false Prophet and the Antichrist, present and working on Earth, the Confederation of the Light¹⁴² and those who serve them.

Nevertheless, the event that most sparked Lucifer's hatred and his frenetic action was the proclamation on Earth of the existence and the work of the Church of the whole Universe, which was made by this remnant in 2018.

This Church

- has announced to the Earth the existence of life in the Universe; she has welcomed the Christian brothers and sisters of other planets and has decided to live in communion with them;
- has drawn your humanity's attention to My Father's plan to gather up the whole creation in Me;
- has completed the announcement of the Apostles, which was incomplete in the part concerning the Universe due to the many acts of unfaithfulness by the Christians of the Earth;
- has prepared the way for My glorious coming, thus marking the beginning of a new and final time for the entire humanity of the Universe that has long awaited the manifestation of My true Church on Earth.

My Church of the whole Universe has finally come out with all her power and cosmic action. Lucifer, who thought to have restricted Christianity to the sole Earth and to have neutralised it, making it a religion among others, found himself before an immense and compact people, spread over the whole Universe. Therefore, he called the Confederation of the Light to the rescue of his followers of the Earth and began to act secretly on your planet. Now the Earth is imbued with the presence and the action of the satanic people; the events of this year, 2020, have clearly proved it.

Faced with this scenario, My people must be well positioned and able to counteract the power of the enemy to the point of annulling it. For this reason, MY INTERMEDIATE COMING next year has been announced to you; it will precede My glorious Coming at the end of times.¹⁴³ What will it exactly be? I tell you that it will not be a striking and visible event. On the contrary, My coming will manifest itself in a profound and silent way in the spirit of My children; yet, not in the spirit of all without distinction, but in those who sincerely want to belong to Me through the Immaculate Heart of My Mother.

That will be My coming in the power of the Holy Spirit by which I will bring My Church to perfection in order to finally make her My Bride. I will come to marry My people. Do not think of a wedding as it is meant on Earth. It is not an emotional bond, but rather a profound and indissoluble MYSTICAL UNION¹⁴⁴ between My Church and Me.

This union will not be generated by human action but by the combined action of the Holy Spirit and Mary Most Holy, the sublime Spouse. They will act together to unite with Me, High Priest and Head of the Church, every soul that wants to belong to Me in every corner of the Universe. At the end of times, I will present My irreprehensible and immaculate Spouse, the Church, to My Father.¹⁴⁵

¹⁴³ See Footnote 136

¹⁴⁴ "The mystical union with Christ is the total union with His life, which leads us to the reality of God's life." See S. Caterina, "Riscrivere la storia-Vol. I-Nel pensiero di Dio", Luci dell'Esodo, 2011, pp. 73-82

¹⁴⁵ See Rev 21,1-8

In order to achieve this goal in the coming year, 2021,

- I will enhance and manifest more and more the action of the three extraordinary instruments headed by St. Michael the Archangel.¹⁴⁶ They will gather the children of God from one end of the Universe to the other and accompany them with their prayer and action.
- I will weaken the forces of Lucifer and create disorder among the ranks of his army. Thus, do not be surprised if you notice increasing confusion on Earth. Since most of your humanity refuses Me, it will no longer be able to discern between truth and falsehood. It will fall into disorder and be trapped in the web of illusion and lies, of Lucifer and his followers.

A large part of the humanity of the Earth will experience hard, dark times, but it will not convert. It will invoke its idols, but they will not be able to save it. Many will fall into ruin but they will not convert. They will blaspheme God, but they will not change their lives.¹⁴⁷ They will live in falsehood and follow the fate of the great impostor, Lucifer.

On the other hand, the sun of life will shine on you and on the whole of My Church of the Universe. You will feel My presence that will make you blossom like new creatures. Even though, apparently, your existence will continue as usual, in your innermost place you will feel the light of the Father, the vibration of My Heart and the warmth of the Holy Spirit. The laws of life will act in you to lead you to fullness.

What do I want from you? A simple life worthy of your calling; a holy life, offered to the One who is three times Holy. The Church will not be able to be My Spouse unless all the souls, of which she is composed, are My spouses.

¹⁴⁶ The extraordinary instruments: the Angels, the Central Nucleus, the brothers and sisters of the Universe faithful to God. You may find more information in our books and in the section "The Extraordinary Instruments of God" on the website, <https://towardsthenewcreation.com/>.

¹⁴⁷ See Rev 16,9; 19,19-21

Therefore, I ask you to be SOUL-SPOUSES. These souls have belonged to Me from eternity. They have decided to give themselves fully to Me; they have given everything to Me, and I have given everything to them. They are not afraid of death because they have chosen life, and they follow Me meekly wherever I go.¹⁴⁸ They are souls who are particularly united with My Mother and resemble Her in their docility and obedience. They are the joy of the Father and fertile ground in which the Holy Spirit sows the seed of life. United with Me like true spouses, they awaken life in other souls and lead them to God. My Church will be composed of these souls, who will fill the Universe with the scent of God¹⁴⁹ and be the ruin of Lucifer.

All of you, who have decided to belong to My Church of the whole Universe, are called to be soul-spouses. For this reason you have been enriched by many graces; you are under the special protection of Mary Most Holy; you have received many revelations that have instructed and prepared you for the coming times.

Everything is ready in you, but I need your “yes”. Only then can I transform you day by day to make you the soul-spouses in My Church Spouse. I do not need your great works or your refined words but your humbleness. I need your firm and clear decision to totally belong to Me through the Immaculate Heart of Mary; the sincerity and purity of your intentions and the righteousness of your conscience.

If you give all this to Me, I will make you My soul-spouses on whom I can count to prepare the new times. United with your brothers and sisters of the Universe, the Saints of Paradise and the souls of Purgatory who are walking towards fullness, you will be the living stones of My true Church¹⁵⁰, and she will shine as My Spouse in the whole Universe.

Do not be worried because of your fragility and your limits. The power of God will be stronger than your weakness. My grace will accompany you and be enough for you in everything.¹⁵¹ Take courage, children, My Heart will always follow you.

I bless all of you, your families and those who are ill. I bless your thoughts and the words with which you will announce salvation to every person of good will.

I bless you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

31 December 2020, Message of Mary Most Holy, Vigil of the Solemnity of the Mother of God

Consecrated to the Service of Love

“Dearest Children,

At the end of this year, I would like to bless all the steps that you have taken with Me, your sacrifices and trials, your prayers, your thoughts and everything that your souls have touched.

The year that is ending brings with it a heavy toll for most of the humanity of the Earth, which obstinately refuses the salvation of My Son Jesus. On the other hand, those who, like you, have offered their life to God for His work, have been blessed with many graces.

All of you who belong to the “Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe” present on Earth have experienced events of cosmic dimensions, such as:

- the division between the true and the false Church, carried out by the Father¹⁵²;
- the proclamation of My prerogative as Co-Redemptrix¹⁵³;
- the final separation from the Catholic Church and the spirit of the world that it holds within.¹⁵⁴

You are not fully aware of the huge progress this people has made during the year 2020. I assure you that it has been truly great.

¹⁵³ See Message of Mary Most Holy of 22 February 2020, “I Am the Co-redemptrix of Humanity”, published on our website

¹⁵⁴ See Message of St. Michael the Archangel of 31 October 2020, “The Lord will Come with All His Saints”

Now equally important events await you. For the Earth, the year 2021 will mark a gradual approach towards the culmination of its history. The intermediate coming of My Son will force the people to come out in the open in all their actions. Thus, what My Son told you will gradually come true: nothing concealed will remain hidden.¹⁵⁵

You will see all this in the events that will take place on Earth because Good and Evil will become more and more visible: many masks will fall under which perverse and wicked men hide. Nevertheless, good people, who can no longer bear the falseness of the world, will also emerge. The Holy Spirit will open their eyes, enabling them to recognise the facts, without being deceived.

Lying tongues will rage on Earth, but they will not be able to seduce the people of God. Falsehood will be presented more and more as truth and truth as falsehood, but the living presence of Jesus among His people will make the lies of Lucifer and his followers crumble like paper castles.

The things I am telling you will not happen from one day to another or magically but through the penetrating, constant and silent action of God and His true Church. It will be a year of battle against the power of darkness; a subtle and wide-ranging spiritual battle, but the people of God will win. The Church of Jesus Christ of the Universe will have nothing to fear. However, each one of you will have to be aware of your identity and mission so that the Lord can put you in the right place. The generosity of each member will give strength to the whole Church both on Earth and in the rest of the Universe.

I will be with you in the battle and nothing will harm you. I will intercede for you with all My power as Queen, Mother and Co-Redemptrix according to the intentions of the Lord.

Therefore, I ask you to consecrate your life and the whole Church to Me at the beginning of this year so that I can gather you all in My

¹⁵⁵ See Lk 12,2

Heart and protect you. The consecration to My Heart will bring you closer to the Heart of My Son Jesus and you will be consecrated to His service with Me. Thus, the coming year will flow peacefully for you despite the difficulties that you will face because of the great confusion of the Earth.

The consecration to My Heart that I ask of you today is not like the simple acts of devotion, which many of you have done in life, but the full adherence to My work in these times. By consecrating yourselves solemnly to Me you will be, with Me, servants of God's life in all the dimensions and shades in which divine life will manifest itself. There are many souls to lead back to the Christian path, the true one, and you will help Me in this.

You will be consecrated to the service of Love, with a capital letter, just as I am. Thus, the graces and gifts will reawaken within all of you. Your "Yes", united with Mine, will enlarge the space in you for the action of the Most Holy Trinity. Only by consecrating yourselves to Me, will you be able to face the cunning of the deceiving enemy and reject all temptations, annul the force of his hatred and go through the painful events that await your humanity.

I know that I will be able to count on you and I thank you for this. Go forward with confidence, children, and be aware of the greatness of your calling and the extraordinary nature of the times you are living in. I promise you that I will always be at your side.
